Cpl. Robert Wright Discharged From The Army At Fort Bragg

Corporal Robert Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wright, of Waynesville, has been discharged from the armed forces. He entered the service in August, 1942, and was inducted at Camp Croft. Before being sent overseas in January of 1943 six months after he entered service he was trained at Fort Knox, Ky.

Cpl. Wright served in Africa, Italy, England, France, Belgium, Holland, Austria and Germany. He was attached to the 899th TD Battalion of the 9th Infantry.

He is entitled to wear the European theater ribbon with seven battle stars, the Purple Heart, American Defense ribbon, and the Pre-Pearl Harbor ribbon, having entered the service in 1940 and served more than a year after which he was discharged and re-enlisted. At the time he entered the service he was employed by the Welco Shoe corporation.

Everyday Counselor

garding the clique or gang with whom you associate . . . Do salute your officers as if you really meant it . . . Do write home as often as you can . . . Do read your Bible prayer book, or other volume of your church. Attend church services in your camp and at nearby communities. You may find, as others of us found, that there are times when no other thing is as important as your faith in the Deity. Know how to call upon Him when you need Him. . . Do not criticize your officers . . . Do not set yourself up as a loud-mouthed authority on any one subject . . . Do not try to be tough and want to show it . . . Do not repeat rumors which you may hear . . . Do not invent stories about yourself, your family, etc. . . Do not threaten or actually "go over the hill" or "jump" ship . . . A desertion charge will stick to you for the rest of your life . . . Do not bring criticism or disgrace upon the uniform which you wear . . . Do not act, imply, or pretend to be better than any of your comrades . . .

This little book concludes with an interesting thumb-nail history of the flag of the United States which every citizen should know. It is available upon proper request as long as the supply lasts by writing THE EVERY DAY COUNSELOR as outlined above.

Miss Betsy Siler, who is attending St. Mary's school, Raleigh, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Siler.

HEN SUPPLIES HER OWN V-J CELEBRATION

Mrs. T. B. Varner, of Louisville, Ky., has a hen that has her own indelible way of making V-J Day more than a memory. She proudly produced an egg with a raised shell formation that was a perfect rudiment of a rising—or setting—sun. Over the sun was a distinct and pronounced "V."

The Veterans' Guide

CAPTAIN JOHN F. WILLIAMS
County Service Officer

The purpose of this column is to give the veterans and their dependents authentic information as to their rights and privileges. While not attempting to answer all the questions anyone could ask it merely hits the high spots. For further information apply any facility the Veterans Administration. Digests of public law 346 (commonly known as the G. I. Bill) 78th Congress, 2nd session, House document No. 692.

State Programs — State unemployment compensation programs provide weekly payments to unemployed workers based on their previous work in "covered" jobs—that is, most jobs in private firms in business and industry; factories, shops, mines, mills, stores, offices, banks, etc. Types of jobs not covered are farm work, household service, government and self-employment, and work for many small firms. Almost all the states have frozen any unemployment insurance rights you may have earned before going into service. You may be able to draw upon them in case you are unemployed after your return.

Full information on job opportunities and unemployment compensation can be obtained at your nearest U. S. Employment Service office.

Federal Provisions—Weekly allowances of unemployment compensation are available through a Federal program if you are not eligible under a State program. If you qualify under both money received under a State plan is subtracted from the Federal allowance. Under the Federal plan you may receive four weeks of allowance for each calendar month of active service after September 16, 1940, and before the end of the present war, up to a total limit of 52 weeks.

If you are completely unemployed, your allowance is $20 a week. If you are partially unemployed, you receive the difference between your wage and the weekly allowance plus $3. If you are self-employed, you may still be eligible if your net earnings in the previous calendar month were less than $100. Allowances remaining unpaid at your death do not become part of your estate.

Eligibility Requirements — You must have served after September 16, 1940, and before the end of the present war, and have been discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable after 90 days' active service, or because of injury or disability incurred in line of duty. Unemployment must have started within two years of discharge or the end of the war. When you file a claim you must be residing in the United States, be completely unemployed or (if partially unemployed) be receiving weekly wages of less than $23; you must register and continue to report to a public employment office, be able to work and be available for suitable work. Illness or disability which occurs during a period of unemployment for which allowances have already started will not disqualify you.

SERVICEMEN'S RIGHTS AND BENEFITS

Disqualifications — You will be disqualified from receiving such allowances if you leave suitable work voluntarily and without good cause, if you are suspended or discharged for misconduct, if you fail without good cause to apply for suitable work to which you have been referred by a public employment office, or to accept suitable work when offered, or if you fail without good cause to attend an available free training course. A job is not considered "suitable" if (a) the wages, hours, or conditions of work are substantially less favorable than those prevailing for similar work in the locality, or (b) the position offered is vacant because of a strike, lock-out, or labor disputes.

Such disqualifications begin the week in which the cause of the disqualification occurs and continues for not more than four weeks immediately following. Under special circumstances the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs may extend the period of your disqualification.

You will also be disqualified from receiving an allowance for any week in which your unemployment is due to a "stoppage of work" existing because of labor dispute in which you are participating or directly interested.

Fuller information concerning these Federal benefits may be obtained at your nearest U. S. Employment Service Office.

Sgt. James T. Maudlin Receives Discharge From Fort Bragg

Sergeant James T. Maudlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Maudlin, of Waynesville, received his discharge from the service at Fort Bragg, on October 23. He entered the service Sept. 12, 1942, and was inducted at Fort Bragg and was trained at the following camps prior to being sent to the European theater; Fort Sheridan, Camp McCoy, Camp Stewart and Camp Shanks.

He served overseas for two years and was in the following countries: England, France, Belgium, Luxembourg, Germany, and Austria.

He is entitled to wear the European Theater ribbon with five battle stars, and one bronze star, Good Conduct medal and Combat Driver's medal. He was attached to the Anti-aircraft Coast Artillery, of the 456th group.

At the time he entered the service he was engaged in farming in this county and plans to make this a permanent residence.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination. Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!
