Miss Stringfield In Charge Of UDC Program Friday

Miss Margaret Stringfield will have charge of the program at the November meeting of the Haywood Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy which will be held tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. L. M. Killian as hostess.

Mrs. James R. Boyd, president,

Mrs. Damour Is Married To J. R. Thomas, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. White, of Hillsboro, Ga., have announced the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Mozelle Damour, to James Robert Thomas, Jr., which took place in Monticello, Ga., on Wednesday, October 17th. Only close friends and members of the family were present for the ceremony.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. White and was graduated from the Monticello high school, of Monticello, Ga., and attended Wesleyan College, in Macon, after which she was graduated from the Macon School of Nursing.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. James R. Thomas, of Waynesville and the late Mr. Thomas. He was educated in the local high school and Western Carolina Teachers College. For the past several years he was connected with the Southern Mapping and Engineering Company, of Greensboro, during which time he spent several months in South America and on the Pacific coast. At present he holds a position with the REA with headquarters in Asheville, where the couple will make their home.

Married In August

John R. Davidson, BKR 3/c U. S. Navy, and Mrs. Davidson, whose marriage took place in Hilton Village, Va., on August 11th. Mrs. Davidson was the former Miss Peggy Hughes, of Newport News, Va., and Clyde, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hughes, of Clyde.

Elizabeth Barber Gives Hayride And Supper On Birthday

Elizabeth Barber, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr., was hostess of a hayride on Saturday afternoon in observance of her seventh birthday anniversary. The guests were driven to the Barber orchards and from there were driven in a wagon to the Barber residence on the Dellwood road by W. T. Kirkpatrick.

Upon arrival at home the young hostess assisted by her mother served a wiener roast supper at the outdoor fireplace. The Halloween motif was noted in the favors and appointments.

The guest list included: Ann William Prevost, Florence Ann Bowles, Agnes Jane Roberson, Sarah Linda Abel, Florrie Patrick, Elizabeth Watkins, Anne Hardin and Mary Barber.

Miss Betty Jane Bradley, who is attending the University of Tennessee, recently made her parents a short visit.

Mrs. J. C. Brown Attends Daughter's Graduation At U. of N. C.

Mrs. J. Colvin Brown has returned from Chapel Hill where she attended the graduation exercises, which was the last war time graduation held under the accelerated program between the Navy and the University. A large number of parents were present for the granting of commissions and awarding of degrees to the graduates. Vice Admiral David Worth Bagley, USN, made the principal address. Governor Cherry also had part on the program.

Miss Ruby Frances Brown received the Bachelor of Arts degree from the College of Arts and Science. She majored in government and public relations and minored in journalism. She did not return with her mother but will arrive this week from Greensboro, where she stopped off for a visit with friends. Miss Brown plans to spend sometime here with her parents.

Dick Bradley has returned to Waynesville after spending a week in New York with friends.

will preside. The program will be on Southern music and all members are urged to be present.

GROWN UP?

Children like to play grown-up, but they don't like bad-tasting adult laxatives. Don't force them on a child.

Try Triena FOR CHILDREN

Stop begging your child to take the laxative he needs. Get Triena. Flavored with delicious prune juice, it tastes good. Triena is effective, too. It's made with senna. It may be just what your child needs, if he's suffering with faulty elimination. Use the laxative with prune juice. Just give TRIENA as directed. Only 30c for trial size. Large size just 50c.
