Antioch was a very beautifully situated city and a very wicked one. In the midst of the corruption was a large group of Jews, according to the historian, who formed a society "governed by their own laws and preserving themselves by their pecullar disclpline free from the abounding vices of Oriental paganism." This was the first time that the Christ was preached to Gentiles, and success was attained. A strong church was founded in Antioch. "And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord. Tidings of this came to the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch. This was a very good choice, as Barna-bas was a Hellenic .Jew, with broad sympathy for the feelings of the Grecians. He also was a man of kindly heart and genial temper, we are told, fitted to soothe jealousies and allay suspicions, and to make the Gentiles feel at home in the church.

Banabas a Good Man "He was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord," Luke tells us. Barnabas left Antioch to go and fetch Paul, possibly because he felt the need of a master mind in the church at Antioch. Paul and Barnabas remained at Antioch for a year, and it was there that the disciples were first called Christians. "And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. And there stood up one of them named Agabus," and he prophesied a famine, which did come to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar. The brethren then took up a collection, "every man according to his ability," to be sent to the relief of their brothers in Jerusalem. Barnabas and Paul took it to the mother church.

Memory Verse being Mark 16:15, Peter had miraculously been liberated, but Herod gave orders that "And He said unto them, Go ye into the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation.") when he was found he was to be put to death. "The word of God grew and multiplied," we are told. In other words, the church grew, and Barnabas and Paul returned from Jerusalem and brought with them John, whose surname was Mark.

Later Paul and Barnabas went back to Antioch, but in the meantime several things had happened.

Herod had killed James, brother of John, and had imprisoned Peter.

Prophets and teachers were at Antioch, such as Barnabas and Simeon, that was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, the latter having been brought up with Herod the tetrarch (the one who put John the Baptist to death), and Paul.

Paul and Barnabas Sent Away "As they ministered to the Lord. and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Paul for the work whereunto I have called them." Separate in this case means to separate them from Antioch, consecrate and send them away for further, missionary work.

"And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away." "So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus." The laying on of hands was a cind of consecration. The apostles retained many of the old rites of the Jews. They laid their hands on the two that the church might offer them to God for His work. It is possible that the apostles took the course they did in commencing this missionary journey because Barnabas was born in Cyprus and there were many Jews in the island, and also some Christians, who may have been in Jerusalem at the Feast of the Pentecost and been driven by persecu-tion back to their homeland. Our last reference is from Ephesians, where Paul, a prisoner. writes that Jesus "gave some apostles; and some prophets; and some evangelists; and some pastors and teachers; "For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. "Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ." In a recent lesson we had this distribution of gifts in the work of the church, so we need not further enlarge opon it.
