

Mountaineers Open Cage Season Here Friday Night

The Waynesville Mountaineers discarded their football togs in exchange for basketball uniforms last week and got down to hard practice for the coming cage season which opens this week. The first game of the season will be with Webster, in a twin engagement, Friday night at 7:00 o'clock at the local gymnasium.

According to Coach C. E. Weatherby, there are plenty of applicants for the teams this year, in both the girls and boys divisions, in fact he is having a hard time finding a uniform for them all.

The Mountaineers have a full schedule this season as follows: Dec. 7, Webster, here (night); Dec. 11, Crabtree, here (1:30 p. m.); Dec. 14, Canton, there (night); Jan. 4, Bethel, there (night); Jan. 11, Fines Creek, here (night); Jan. 15, Sylva, there (night); Jan. 16, Asheville School, here (3:00 p. m.); Jan. 18, Clyde, here (night); Jan. 25, Fines Creek, there (night); Jan. 30, Asheville School, there (3:00 p. m.); Feb. 1, Canton, here (night); Feb. 8, Cl. de, there (night); Feb. 12, Sylva, here (night); Feb. 15, Crabtree, there (1:30 p. m.); Feb. 22, Bethel, here (night).

M. B. Reeves, Jr., S. 2/c. Here on 30-Day Leave

M. B. Reeves, Jr., seaman second class, who enlisted in the navy in May, 1944, is spending a 30-day leave here with his wife and parents. Seaman Reeves took his boot training at Camp Peary, Va., and from there was sent to Norfolk.

He served with the 8th Fleet at advanced bases in the European theater for several months. When his leave is completed he will report back to Norfolk for reassignment.

Reorganization also was in the air for the seventh-place Cincinnati Reds as President Powell Crosley, Jr., promised stockholders to rebuild the club into a winning outfit. Reports showed that the team drew only 290,070 admissions for the season and finished with a loss of $30,865.

In Chicago the Cubs had announced the unconditional release of Lon Warneke, outstanding right-hander of a decade ago. But Lon, at 36, was not through with baseball. He plans to become an umpire in the minor leagues next year.

At West Point chances for a charity game between the victorious Army team and champions of the national professional football world went out the window as Col. Meade Wildrick, director of U. S. Military Academy public relations, said that the Cadets will compete in intercollegiate circles only.

Blue prints are leaping to life with telephones for all who have been waiting for them, just as fast as we can secure the equipment. This is one of our top jobs! Telephones for our farmer and rural friends are also being swiftly scheduled. A greatly expanded long distance service is in process, too. It will include the installation of coaxial cables so we can handle more calls with greater speed and convenience for you, and provide more facilities for television. A lot of construction is to be done and a new service to motor vehicles is also in the offing.

What does it all mean? For one thing, it means a continuation of the pleasant, progressive partnership of the people of North Carolina and the people of the Telephone Company. Telephone folks are happy to be a part of this vast program that will lend so much impetus to the state's own industrial and agricultural expansion plans. As we see it, the future beckons North Carolina with a busy, prosperous hand!

SPORTS PICK UPS

Football was in the process of a major reconversion this week as eight of America's oldest universities realized a goal of many years and formed themselves into the new Eastern Conference or enlarged Ivy league.

Institutions represented in an alignment which should put Eastern Seaboard football on the same highly organized scale as in the Western Conference are: Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Cornell, Pennsylvania, Dartmouth, and Brown — embracing the nation's oldest traditions in education as well as in competitive sports.

Under the new plan salient features of the old Harvard-Yale-Princeton agreement will be combined with aspects of the Western Conference code in a new administrative set-up for the eight participating schools. As yet no official name has been selected, but later action is expected to provide this as well as some indication of schedules.

Man of the week in the sports world was Hal Newhouse, 24-year-old lefthander of the Detroit Tigers, who won the most-valuable-player citation in the American League for the second successive year. By achieving this distinction, Hal became the second man in the history of the award, inaugurated in 1911, to win more than one citation. Jimmy Fox, of the Athletics was nominated in 1932 and 1933. In winning this year, Newhouse matched his 1944 score to the point — 236 out of a possible 336. Eddie Mayor, Tiger second baseman, was second with 164.

Dreams of former slugging diamond glory were in the air this week for the New York Yankees as a player survey showed that 14 former members have been discharged recently or are on terminal furlough, and seven more are scheduled to get out soon. This left only three of the old Yankee aggregation in uniform, while the following were ready for action: Pitchers—Charley Stanceu, Herb Karpell, and Rinaldo Ardzioza; catchers, Ken Sears, Rollie Hemsley, and Ken Silverstri; infielders, Joe Gordon, Buddy Hassett, Phil Rizzuto, Johnny Strum and Henry Majeski; and outfielders, Joe Di Maggio, Tommy Henrich, and George Selkirk.

Reorganization also was in the air for the seventh-place Cincinnati Reds as President Powell Crosley, Jr., promised stockholders to rebuild the club into a winning outfit. Reports showed that the team drew only 290,070 admissions for the season and finished with a loss of $30,865.

Dayton Rubber Primed For Asheville Here Fri.

Undefeated Asheville Team To Meet Strong Dayton Rubber Cagers At Eight

Dayton Rubber is all primed for the Asheville Waste Paper team here Friday night at the Army, with play getting under way at 8:00 o'clock. The Asheville team has not tasted defeat this year.

Teams who have played both Dayton and Asheville were predicting yesterday that Dayton would break the winning streak of the boys from Buncombe here Friday night. Their predictions were based on the high calibre of basket tossing shown by the Dayton team last Saturday night here against Enka, when the game went into an extra period to play off a tie.

Dayton took an early lead, and at the end of the first quarter led 15 to 9. At the half the score was tied 34 to 34. The teams then played a nip and tuck game, with the lead changing hands numerous times. In the last minute of play Sumner of Dayton tossed in two baskets for four points, and the score stood 46 to 46 as the final whistle blew.

In the extra minutes, Gaddy of Enka, went on a scoring rampage and the score ended 60 to 52 in favor of Enka. Spectators readily agreed it was the best game ever played in this section.

On Wednesday night, the Hendersonville all-stars turned back the Dayton team 44 to 55. Hendersonville (55) Daycoes (44) F. Bagwell (12) Arrington F. Taylor (15) Brown (16) C. Griffith (2) Audrey (20) G. W. Pryor (4) Sumner (2) G. Hill (7) McDonald (6) Subs: Daycoes—Reeter; Hendersonville—Lytie, Williams (10), Ward (5), Arledge. Referee—Mac Smith.
