Gladys Ezell Becomes Bride Of Sgt. Charles Jackson Sheehan

Mrs. John Ezell held the marriage of their daughter Gladys Ezell Charles Jackson Sheehan, and Mrs. Arthur Sheehan, Waynesville. The vows were taken at 1:00 o'clock Saturday at the parsonage of the First Methodist church. The Rev. Paul W. Sheehan, pastor, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a white wool suit with a white sash and yellow roses. The groom wore a white suit and a white boutonniere. The ceremony was held at the parsonage of the First Methodist church.

Mrs. J. M. Queen Hostess Of UDC February Meet

Mrs. John M. Queen was hostess of the February meeting of the Haywood Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy on Friday afternoon with Mrs. Jimmie Boyd, president, presiding.

Mrs. R. N. Barber had the paper of the afternoon, her subject being "Zebulon Baird Vance." She gave a detailed account of the highlights in North Carolina's war governor during the period of the War Between the States.

Miss Margaret Johnston, librarian of the Haywood County library made an appeal for books. The chapter voted to purchase the three volumes of "Lee's Lieutenants" and present to the county library.

Plans for meeting all the obligations of both the state and general organizations were discussed and approved. Plans for remembering Captain Alden Howell, only living Haywood county veteran in the War Between the States, who resides in Los Angeles, Calif., and will observe his 105th birthday anniversary on Feb. 18, were made.

Miss Nancy Killian, historian, gave a report on the annual declamation contest held by the Chapter for the Junior high school boys.

Mrs. L. G. Elliott sang "Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair," by Foster, and "The Little Patched Trouser," written by Governor Vance. Miss Killian served as accompanist.

Announcement was made that the next meeting would be held with Mrs. R. H. Blackwell and Mrs. L. E. Perry as joint hostesses the first Friday in March.

Upon completion of 300 hours of combat flying he was returned to the States and was recently discharged with the rank of captain.

He was awarded while serving overseas, the Air Medal with six oak leaf clusters, the Distinguished Flying Cross and six combat stars.

DAR And Home Edonomics Dept. Sponsor Annual Fashion Show 12th

The annual Fashion show which is held by the Home Economics Department in connection with the Cotton Dress contest sponsored each year by the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held at 9:30 next Tuesday morning, the 12th, in the high school auditorium, according to Mrs. Herbert Buchanan, home economics teacher and Mrs. W. E. Swift, regent of the chapter.

There will be around 160 taking part in the show, all the models wearing garments they have made themselves under the supervision of Mrs. Buchanan.

There will be 15 girls who will complete for the prizes to be offered by the DAR Chapter in the cotton dress group.

Mrs. Buchanan has chosen as the theme of the presentation of the show this year, "Pages from Mademoiselle." The public is cordially invited to attend the show, which is always one of the highlights of the school year among the contests sponsored by outside groups at the high school.

As is the custom, the girls of the home economics department model all types of dresses, for all occasions, made from various materials.
