

Wm. McCallum Addresses Club On Art History

William McCallum, artist, was the guest speaker at the February meeting of the Woman's Club which was held on Thursday afternoon at Oak Park, with Miss Rhina Miller, chairman of art in charge of the program.

Mr. McCallum gave brief historical sketches of art in various countries, including America, citing the leading artists and their contributions.

Miss Miller called the attention of the members to the recent Morehead memorial gift to the University of North Carolina and what it would mean to the citizens of the state as well as to the students of the University.

Mrs. Mary Tsvoglou, who is in charge of the club rooms of the Youth organization of the town gave a report on her work in which she stated that from October to February there had been 734 girls and boys visiting the Youth center. She stressed the appreciation of the young people of the community for this service.

Mrs. Killian, president, who presided reported that a check for $45.50 would be turned over to the Haywood County Library as the result of the tea sponsored by the club.

Mrs. R. N. Barber spoke on the restoration of Tryon's Palace and urged the club to give their support to the movement.

It was reported that the Lions Club had donated $100 to the Youth movement which is sponsored by the club.

Mrs. M. G. Stames spoke briefly on the Reading contest which is sponsored annually for the girls of the Waynesville Township high school.

It was decided to change the hour of the meeting of the club from 3:00 back to 3:30, beginning with the March meeting.

Following adjournment a social hour was enjoyed with Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. Mary Tsvoglou and Mrs. Robert H. Stretcher, serving as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Therrell of Atlanta, spent the week in town as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn.

Miss Evelyn Coleman, of Knoxville, Tenn., who has spent some time here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Way, Jr., returned to Knoxville on Sunday.

Wedding Solemnized In Florida

CHIEF PETTY OFFICER AND MRS. R. W. JACKSON, whose marriage took place in a ceremony at the McIlwain Memorial Presbyterian Church in Pensacola, Fla., on January 6th at 6:00 o'clock. The bride was before her marriage Miss Catherine Shraffenberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Shraffenberger, of Pensacola. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. R. W. Jackson, of Waynesville.

R. W. Jackson, Jr., U. S. Navy, Weds Pensacola Girl

Miss Catherine Shraffenberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Shraffenberger, of Pensacola, Fla., and Chief Petty Officer R. W. Jackson, Jr., son of Mrs. R. W. Jackson, of Waynesville, were married in a double ring ceremony at the McIlwain Memorial Presbyterian church of Pensacola, Fla., on Sunday afternoon, January 6th at 6 o'clock. The Rev. C. T. Partridge officiated.

Prior to the marriage a program of music was rendered by Mrs. N. D. Been, organist, and Miss Gloria McDaniel, soloist. Miss McDaniel sang, "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs Bond, and "Because" by deLafayette. Mrs. Been played the traditional wedding marches for both the processional and the recessional.

The church was arranged in evergreens including ferns and ivy in the background while vases of white flowers, with calla lilies predominating, were interspersed among the greenery. Cathedral tapers burned on the altar and in the windows, with pews marked by bows of white ribbons with ferns.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown fashioned of white satin and net. It was modeled along princess lines with a low neckline and long sleeves. The finger tip veil was of bridal illusion and was worn with a Juliet cap. Her bouquet was of white calla lilies, and her only ornament was a diamond brooch, a family heirloom.

Mrs. John M. Douglas, of Pensacola, was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown fashioned on similar lines as that of the bride, but made of peach-colored satin and net. She carried an arm bouquet of spring flowers.

The bridegroom had as his best man, Chief Petty Officer Wayne Baker. Serving as ushers were Nathan Shackford, Harry Davis, and Virginia Ross Dupre, all of Pensacola.

Mrs. Shraffenberger, mother of the bride wore a dress of powder blue with corsage of gardenias.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, which was attended only by relatives and close friends. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth.

Mrs. Jackson is a graduate of the Pensacola high school. Chief Petty Officer Jackson is a graduate of the Waynesville Township high school and has since his graduation been serving in the U. S. navy. He took his boot training in Norfolk Naval Base and Pensacola. He served on the U. S. S. Hornet, which was sunk in the battle of the Coral Sea. Later he served on several other carriers. He is currently stationed at Pensacola, Fla.

Miss Janette Burgin Becomes Bride Of R. G. Goldsworthy Sunday, 24th

The marriage of Miss Janette Marguerite Burgin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lester Burgin to Robert G. Goldsworthy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Goldsworthy, of Des Plaines, Ill., was solemnized on Sunday afternoon, February 24, at the First Baptist Church here. The Rev. L. G. Elliott, pastor, pronounced the vows, using the double ring ceremony.

For the occasion the altar of the church was arranged with a background of evergreens and ferns, with candelabra with lighted tapers and floor vases of white flowers, placed among the greenery.

A program of wedding music was rendered by Miss Theresa Alley, organist, and Miss Ida Lou Gibson and J. D. Hyatt, vocalists. Miss Alley played "Indian Love Call," by Friml, "At Dawning," by Cadman, and "To a Wild Rose," McDowell. During the ceremony she rendered "Intermezzo," by Provost and for the processional and the recessional the traditional marches were used. Miss Gibson sang "Ave Maria," by Schubert and Mr. Hyatt sang "Oh, Perfect Love," Gurney and "Until," by Sanderson.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and she wore a white marquisette gown over taffeta, modeled with an off the shoulder effect. The sleeves were long, ending in a point over the hands. The bodice was tight fitted and the skirt was a full gathered model. She wore lace gloves and her only ornament was a string of pearls. Her veil was held in place on either side by clusters of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white roses and centered with gardenias.

Mrs. Robert S. Millar, matron of honor, wore a gown of canary taffeta, an off the shoulder model, with full skirt and pointed bodice, and short puffed sleeves. She wore a wreath of gladioli blooms in her hair, and her bouquet was of mixed garden flowers, tied with contrasting ribbon.

Miss Betty Jane Bradley, student at the University of Tennessee, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of orchid taffeta, fashioned along similar lines to that of the matron of honor and her bouquet was of mixed spring flowers, also tied with contrasting ribbon.

Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Norman Jean Burgin, sister of the bride and Miss June Goldsworthy, sister of the bridegroom, who wore identical frocks of salmon pink, with flowers in their hair. They also carried bouquets of mixed spring flowers.

Robert S. Millar, of Waynesville, was best man and ushers were Richard Bradley, Bill Millar, Erwin Burgin, and Charles Hurst Burgin.

The bride's mother wore a black crepe afternoon gown with fushia accessories and corsage of gardenias. The mother of the bridegroom wore a black print with lavender and fushia design and a corsage of gardenias.

Following the wedding at the church the bride's parents entertained with a reception at their home. Assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bradley in the living room. Mrs. Harry Whisenhunt, Mrs. Hurst Burgin, and Mrs. Chas. W. Edwards were in the dining room and serving with them were Jean Ann Bradley, Betty Joe Brown, Nina McClure and Barbara Ann Boyd.

Miss Margaret Burgin received in the gift room and Miss Betty Burgin presided at the punch bowl. Ann Hardin, daughter of Mrs. W. L. Hardin, was in charge of the bride's book.

The bride is a graduate of the Waynesville Township high school and also attended Mars Hill College. A number of parties have been given in compliment to her since her engagement has been announced.

The bridegroom, a veteran of World War II, is a graduate of the Maine Township high school, of Des Plaines, Ill., and later attended Northwestern University. At the time he entered the service he held the position of assistant office manager and credits manager of the Chicago office of Beatrice Creamery Company, Birdseye division.
