It seems that last April the Army day night, March 1. decided to sell 20,000 homing pigeons it no longer needed. So a disposal agency went to work.

In the nine months since then it has sold 1,561 pairs of pigeons for room. $6,055. This may seem like a neat profit, but hold on for a minute. Did you know, a gloomy Government asks, that ahungry pigeon held Friday night, March 15, at 8 can eat $4.92 worth of rations a o'clock. All members are urged

> First, said the War Assets Corporation, it will try to donate the birds to State, Federal or nonprofit organizations. When that fails and the tone of the report seems to indicate everyone is positive it will fail), anyone can have a pigeon.

Send your requests to War Assets Corporation, Consumer Goods Division, General Products Section, Railroad Retirement Building, Washington 25, D. C.

And, the Government isn't foolng about being in a hurry to get rid of them, for it adds: No less than 20 pigeons to a customer.
