

ital Letters THOMPSON GREENWOOD

ville, a first-rate Broughton supporter, had been appointed in her place. Well, you can imagine how Mrs. Stevens felt about Governor J. M. Broughton—a 400-mile trip for nothing.

Now Mr. and Mrs. Whitfield may be ardent Broughton supporters—she is sweet and nice and forgiving, if not forgetting—and the Vivians may be for Broughton in his various political aspirations—and again they may not be.

TAXI—There is a new taxi service in Raleigh owned and operated by World War II veterans. These Wake County boys returned from the wars and hit on the idea of converting their "mustered out" pay into a business, so each of them bought a car and formed the Wake Taxi Service.

REPEAT—This little story has been kicked about quite a bit within the last few days, but it is probably worth repeating: One day last week State Auditor George Ross Pou was sitting out on the capital grounds sunning.

CHRISTMAS—William B. Umstead of Durham, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, has told intimates that he will not announce his decision about running for Governor until about Christmas.

Foot Soldiers Win 177 Of The 240 Congressional Medals

Washington—Foot soldiers of the Infantry won 177 of the 240 Congressional Medals conferred on Army personnel in World War II.

Which Shall It Be? More Bread Or Less Liquor

WASHINGTON—The nation has reached a point where it must determine whether it will have "less liquor and more food or more beer and less bread," declares Representative Edward H. Rees (R) of Kansas.

Fifth Liner Burns At Liverpool Harbor

LIVERPOOL—The German prize ship Empire Waveney, fifth vessel to catch fire in Liverpool harbor in 36 hours, keeled over against a quay side recently, abandoned to flames which police hinted might have been the work of saboteurs.
