

ABC Changes Name At Meet Tuesday Night

At the regular meeting of the American Business Club on Tuesday night it was decided to change the name from the Waynesville-Hazelwood chapter to the Waynesville Chapter. The meeting was held at the Jones Tea Room, with Clyde Fisher, president, presiding. Invocation was given by Lawson Summerrow.

A history of the ABC was given during the evening and a resume of the activities of the local chapter, youngest local civic group, which was organized in November, 1945, with six charter members. It was announced that the membership now stands at fifteen. Attention was called to the meaning of the motto, "Shoulder together," which suggests comradeship and cooperation.

Two new members were taken into the chapter Tuesday night, Eddie Fenstermacher, and Charlie Ballentine.

The present roll of members includes: Lawson Summerrow, Bud Blalock, Earl Seruggs, Harry Lee Limer, Kyle Campbell, Rufus Gaddis, George Bischoff, R. L. Hendricks, Rev. Paul Townsend, Charles Ballentine, Eddie Fenstermacher, Joe Shipley and Wallace Marley. Guests of the evening were Henry Tuttle and Rufus Carswell.
