

Hyatt Brothers

ers plan to open for business.
Lachlan Hyatt, who will be in charge of the plumbing and heating department attended the apprentice school for plumbers at the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock company for four years. After his graduation he worked in the office of the superintendent of the hull outfitting division as a staff supervisor.
From this department he was transferred to the hull engineering department as a senior quartermaster in plumbing and pipe fitting from which position he recently resigned in order to return here and open his own business.
Following his graduation from high school here, prior to going to Newport News, Va., Mr. Hyatt operated a filling station here for a year or two.
David Hyatt, who attended Duke University for two years went to the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock company in 1923 and remained in the employment until 1941 when he was transferred to the North Carolina shipyard at Wilmington, where he held the position of quartermaster in the fitters department.
The Hyatts are sons of M. W. A. Hyatt and the late Mrs. Hyatt the latter, a well known business woman of this section.

Mabel A. Coffey Wins In Hardware Letter Contest

Miss Mabel A. Coffey, daughter of Mrs. R. G. Coffey, who is associated with her sisters in the operation of the Waynesville Hardware Company, has recently been awarded $25.00 as first prize in a letter writing contest conducted by the National Hardware Institute.

Other winners were N. O. Pugh of the Dixie Mill Supply Company of Shreveport, La., second place, and Rudy G. Willet, of Gamble Skogma, Inc., of Minneapolis, third place.

The contests conducted by the Hardware Institute deal with controversial subjects of interest to the hardware and express retailers, and wholesalers' opinions upon certain trade topics of the day.

Miss Coffey has written a number of poems that have been accepted by well known applications.

Miss Eloise Knight who holds a position in Portsmouth, Va., and Miss Katherine Knight, who holds a position in Charlotte, recently spent the week-end in Hazelwood with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Knight.

Bank of France says taxes and expenditures nearly balance.
