New Service Station And Garage Opening In Hazelwood Today

J. R. Cabe Owns Service Station; Hardy Cable and E. Frady Own Other Business

An announcement is being made today of the dual opening on Friday of Cabe's Shell Service Station, and the 5-Point Garage and Fix-It Shop, both housed in the modern new building on highway 19 and 23 in Hazelwood near Bradley's Super Market.

J. R. Cabe is owner and manager of the service station, which has just been completed and equipped with the latest in service station fixtures and equipment. Two grease racks, one an open pit and the other a hydraulic lift, are served with air pressure grease guns operating from a central station. An inside wash rack is also a part of the modern station, which will feature complete service.

Mr. Cabe is a native of Hayesville, and before entering service was at Fontana. He received his army discharge in January after serving almost three years in service, much of the time overseas.

The 5-Points Garage and Fix-It Shop is owned jointly by Hardy Cable and E. Frady. Mr. Cable is owner of the building which houses both businesses.

The garage will do general mechanical work, as well as repair work on anything mechanical. Four experienced mechanics are employed by the firm. A specialty with the Fix-It Shop is repairing and grinding lawn mowers. A special machine is used in the work, and a full line of parts for all makes are carried. Mr. Frady came here last September and opened his shop, and Mr. Cable is from Swain county.

'Red' Letter Day

A LETTER in which Andrei Gromyko, (above) Soviet delegate, bluntly insisted that the Iranian issue be completely dropped—and immediately—has created a new crisis in the U. N. sessions at Hunter College, N. Y. Gromyko did not say what the Soviet might do if the Security Council failed to comply. A dispatch from Moscow, however, indicated that should the case be continued on the Council's agenda, the Soviet Union would consider the action "most unfriendly". The Russian paper, Pravda, published the text of messages exchanged with Iran. (International)

KEEN SIGHT AT 80

SOMERSWORTH, N. H.—At 80, Orvila St. John is still making harnesses by hand here after 63 years in the business. He does not wear spectacles.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hall and sons, William, Jr., and John Hardy, and daughter Anne, of McDonalds, and Mrs. Hardy Warwick and daughter, Miss Sarah Warwick, of Orrum, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Curtis Russ Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Hall to make this their home when they retire.

3-Way Hammer Is Newest Invention

Want to buy a triple-duty hammer?

Seventy-eight-year-old W. R. Cloer of the Sandy Ridge section near Hickory has invented a hammer that not only drives a nail, but holds it and draws it, as well.

A farmer until ill health forced him to retire, Cloer believes his invention would save countless long-suffering thumbnails.

He's had the idea patented, but lack of sufficient finances has prevented him from marketing it. He says he'll sell if the proposition is right.

Auto Industry Fete To Use Atomic Force

DETROIT—Plans for the smashing of an atom to signalize the opening of the Golden Jubilee of the auto industry were disclosed here.

George Romney, president of the Automobile Manufacturers Association, said a cyclotron at the University of Michigan will be used in the demonstration, with the atom to be smashed to provide power to unveil a mammoth wheel erected in downtown Detroit as a symbol of the industry's 50 years of progress.

Mr. Romney explained that the atomic power used will be only sufficient to close the gap in a telegrapher's key. It will be relayed from Ann Arbor to downtown Detroit where the unveiling ceremonies will be held May 31.

Norfolk Only So-So To 'Publicity' Miss

RICHMOND, Va.—Word comes from Norfolk, Va., in a roundabout way, that 7-year-old Irene Darden, daughter of former Governor Colgate W. Darden, Jr., and Mrs. Darden, nee du Pont, has not changed her mind about residing in that seaport city.

When Irene returned to Norfolk in mid-January after four years in the Governor's Mansion here, she was asked how she liked being back in Norfolk.

"Not much," she candidly said.

A few days ago her school teacher asked Irene if she'd changed her mind about Norfolk.

"No," was the reply.

"But, why?" her teacher pressed.

"Well, I miss my publicity," Irene said.

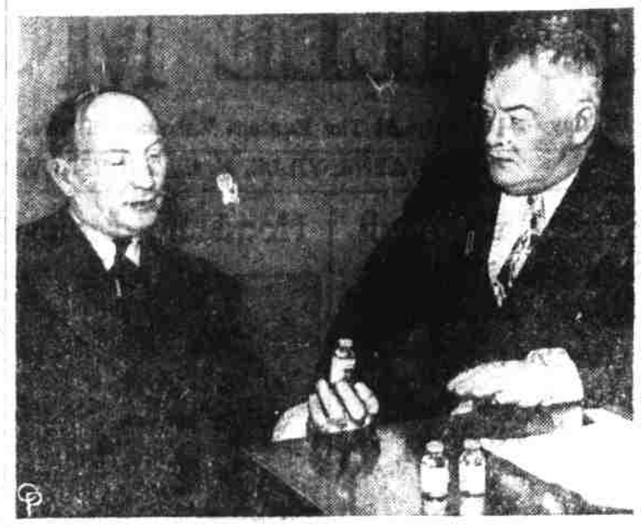
G. I. Wives and Children Sail For Mediterranean

WASHINGTON—The wives of 145 officers, four sergeants and one private were listed this week in the first contingent of military dependents to sail this month for the Mediterranean.

In all there are about 212 women and children going mainly to Italy in this first group. Among them is Mrs. John C. H. Lee of Pasadena, Calif., wife of the commanding general of the Mediterranean theater. Lady Juan Wright of Edgewood, Texas, is the wife of the lone private, PFC. William M. Wright.

The state of Texas was 100 years old this year.

BLACK MARKET GOUGES THE DYING



NEW JERSEY MAYOR HEARS OF FUTILE SEARCH FOR RARE DRUG

THROUGH DISCLOSURES of Dr. Edward Carlin, Mayor of Rahway, N. J., investigation is under way of a black market in the rare drug, Streptomycin. Carlin says that $100 to $150 is being asked for a $25 gram. In photo at top, Mayor Carlin gets data from Joseph Diamond, Philadelphia, whose son will die unless he gets Streptomycin. Below, Mrs. Joseph Diamond comforts Julius, 21, whose desperate condition, following an operation, demands the wonder drug. (International Soundphoto)

Silk Heads Exports In Japanese Plan

TOKYO—Japan is pushing production of the things it can trade so it can pay for the food its millions will need.

Bicycles, cameras, and tea are among the items Japan wants to export, but most stress is being put on silk, which before the war brought 60 per cent of Japan's return from exports. Now the nation expects to be able to ship an average of 10,000 bales to the United States each month, starting in May. In March, 2,600 bales were shipped, and 8,300 bales will be exported this month.
