

Betty Gene Boyd Becomes Bride of Martin Enoch In Nashville

Miss Betty Gene Boyd, daughter of Mrs. Marion Lee Boyd, of Waynesville, and the late Enoch, son of Mrs. Enoch and the late Mrs. Enoch, was married at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Scales, N.C., by Rev. J. H. End, Methodist pastor.

Mr. Enoch, soloist, and Mrs. Enoch, organist, gave the nuptial music as the bride and groom were led to the altar.

Mr. Enoch, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated at the marriage. The bride wore a gown of white tulle with a square marquisette collar and long sleeves. Her hair was styled in a bun and she wore a large white veil. The groom wore a dark suit and a white shirt with a bow tie.

The bride's bouquet consisted of white carnations and baby's breath. The bridesmaids wore light-colored dresses and carried bouquets of white carnations. The groomsmen wore dark suits and carried top hats.

The wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. There were 50 guests in attendance. The bride and groom were the center of attention throughout the evening.

After the reception, the bride and groom departed for their honeymoon. They will be returning to Waynesville in a few weeks.

Miss Betty Gene Boyd is a graduate of the high school in Waynesville. She is currently employed as a secretary in a local business office.

Mr. Martin Enoch is a graduate of the high school in Waynesville. He is currently employed as a carpenter in a local construction company.

The wedding was a private affair. Only family and close friends were invited. The ceremony was held in a small, intimate setting.

The bride and groom are both members of the local church. They plan to continue their religious education together.

The wedding was a beautiful occasion. The bride and groom were both in excellent health and spirits.
