operation as was that of Mrs. Carpenter, who could not make the trip into town. Eddie Carpenter and his mother, who suffered bruises, were rushed to the Hay-County Hospital by Mr. Hayes and in thirty minutes the small boy had been X-rayed, his wounds treated and he was asleep in the hospital bed. Mrs. Carpenter was treated for minor injuries and released from the hospital.

The pick-up truck operated by the negro man, was alleged to have been stolen from the Boyd Furniture Company and Casey was arrested on charges of breaking, entering and larceny, and driving while intoxicated.

A Pontiac sedan driven by Frank B. New, of Indianapolis, Ind., skidded off the road near the Brendle place on the Balsam Road around 5:15 Friday afternoon. Mrs. New, who was riding with her husband, received lacerations in the head and was treated at the Haywood County Hospital, but Mr. New was reported to have escaped any injury. He was said to have been operating the car at a high rate of speed, according to the investigating officer.

At 4:00 o'clock Saturday morning a 1941 Chevrolet sedan parked in front of the home of John Nichols on Brown Avenue was damaged when a 1939 Ford backed into the Nichols car and then knocked it into a telephone pole nearby. The Ford was operated by Wayne M. Owen, of Waynesville, RFD No. 2, who was arrested on charges of driving while drunk. He made bond of $300.

'MIRACLE' SAVES FOUR AS ONE IS KILLED

"IT'S A MIRACLE that anyone lived through it," remarked an ambulance surgeon when he arrived at the scene of the two-car crash pictured above. The collision happened on Hempstead Turnpike at Wantagh State Parkway bridge, New York. Stretched on the ground in the foreground is Ernest Reid, driver of the overturned car who later died in Meadowbrook Hospital. At left are Lt. and Mrs. William Dempsey. With back to camera is Mrs. Thomas Fowler whose husband crawled to safety through the windshield. (International)

ARCHITECT'S PLAN FOR PERMANENT U.N. SITE

WITH NEW YORK IN THE LEAD as a prospective permanent site for the U.N., the above plan of Architect Aymar Embury again is being given consideration. Embury is now remodeling the New York building, on the old World's Fair grounds, selected as temporary quarters for U.N. General Assembly meetings. He submitted the design shown here when the Manhattan area was first given consideration some months ago. In this original plan, the New York building, where the sessions would be held, is centered in the background and it would look out on modernistic units, plus landscaped grounds, gardens and fountains. ### Capital Ringed

WITH ALL OF MANCHURIA again plunged into a general civil war, Chinese Communist troops were reported circling the capital at Changchun (indicated by arrow). American-equipped Chinese National forces were said to have been driven back 20 miles. Circle on the map shows where heaviest fighting is raging. (International)

Sugar Stamp No. 49 Is Now Good

Spare stamp 49 in family ration books became valid May 1st for five pounds of sugar.

OPA said the new coupon will expire August 31. Sugar stamp 39, the last specifically labeled "sugar," expired April 30.

OPA said that on the basis of latest surveys it expects the present sugar ration of five pounds every four months can be maintained. In that case, another sugar stamp will be validated September 1.

Spare stamp 49 is in ration book four, as well as in the special sugar ration books issued to veterans and as replacements.

ADDS TO CRIMINOLOGY

LITTLETON, N. H.—Mrs. Frances Glessner Lee, who is 68 years old, is believed to be the only woman state police captain in the nation.

Mrs. Lee takes her duties very seriously. In fact, for many years she has been making a valuable contribution to crime detection and solution with her "death in a nutshell" miniatures. These replicas of famous murders have been used to instruct medical examiners in the art of preserving homicide evidence.

Six Leave In April Call Under Draft System

Six boys, all just turned eighteen years of age, left here Tuesday morning for induction in the regular army at Fort Bragg under the call from the selective service system for the month of April.

Harry Everett Jaynes was named leader of the group on the trip to the induction center. There were two transfers included in the six. Raymond Kirkpatrick Messer, transferred from Arlington, and Conley Sutton, from Tavares, Fla.

Others were, Robert Dunbar Jenkins, Ernest Dee Chambers and George Wilkerson Lance.

TOWN CLOCK DARKENED

MILTON, Pa.—The town clock has little value after midnight, unless the Borough Council changes the hedges by laws.

Lights of the big timepiece, located in the steeple of the First Presbyterian Church, were ordered extinguished by church officials, who said Council refused to contribute toward upkeep.

The budget makes no provision for that sort of thing, Council said.
