Canton Wins In National Safety Record; One Of 3 Cities In North Carolina

Canton was one of the three cities in North Carolina, and among the 120 in the nation to win a place on the National Safety Council's 1945 honor roll for going through the year without a single traffic fatality.

The council said that 28 fewer cities secured a perfect record, as compared with 1944. Each city will receive a certificate of commendation from the council. A total of 1,355 cities in 48 states were entered in the council's annual traffic safety contest.

The other two North Carolina cities were Mount Airy and Asheville.

Three Haywood Men Enter Armed Forces

The following Haywood county men have enlisted in the regular army: John L. Holland, son of C. H. Holland, of Canton, entered the Cavalry; William R. Trull, son of Mrs. Elsie Trull, of Canton, has joined the AAF.

Joseph H. Smith, son of Lee Smith, of Hazelwood, who served for fifty months in the service has reenlisted.

COSTLY FIVE MINUTES

DILLON—Miss Ruby Sparkman, clerk of the Selective Service Bureau here, left her office a few minutes and in her absence some one stole her black patent-leather pocketbook with $70 and other personal property. She returned in five minutes to discover the loss. No arrest has been made yet.

Soft Soap

Don't soften and waste your bar soap by letting it stay in water. The soap guard on a washboard can be made more effective by screwing another piece of wood to the ledge to prevent soap from slipping.

We can all "Point with Pride"

Let's point first to Magic Circle Fit, which insures young, tender, growing feet adequate space for flexing toes—and safe, important, support for the non-moving portion of a child's heel. Other points in their favor are their economy, good looks, balance, comfort, and fine effect on future foot health!
