Sets June As Dairy Month

Governor Cherry, in a proclamation issued this week, has proclaimed the month of June as 'Dairy Month" in North Carolina. In his proclamation, the Governor said:

"Whereas, dairy products are essential to the maintenance of human health and efficiency; and

"Whereas, dairy farmers and the entire dairy industry are exerting every possible effort towards producing the maximum amounts of these products and still are unable to meet all of the public's pressing demands; and

"Whereas, due to the shortages of some important dairy products there is great need of better understanding of the problems of the dairy farmers and the dairy industry and the importance of dairy products in the human diet to the end that the battle against malnutrition, both at home and abroad, may be waged with undiminished

"I do hereby proclaim the month out the State of North Carolina and request the citizens of the mzing that this industry and its products are vital to the world's peace.
