Unclaimed Deposits In Banks Go to U. N. C.

RALEIGH — Attorney General Harry McMullan said in an official ruling that under the state's escheat law all bank deposits on which no debits or credits had been entered for a five-year period, and where the owner of heirs can not be found, are eligible for transfer to the University of North Carolina.

McMullan's ruling was in response to a request from W. W. Woodley, Jr., vice president of the Durham Bank and Trust company. It has been mailed in all North Carolina banks by Gurney P. Hood, banking commissioner.

Dereict deposits, McMullan said, "shall be paid to the University and held by it, without liability for profit or interest, until a just claim therefor shall be preferred by the parties entitled thereto, and if no such claim is preferred within 10 years the property shall be held by the University absolutely."

The University's board of trustees adopted a resolution recently referring the entire matter of escheat to McMullan, following a long discussion of the law between the University and the state association bankers.

Meat, Wheat Supplies Are Growing Acute

CHICAGO—A survey shows that shortages of meat and wheat across the nation are growing more acute.

The government is moving to increase bread supplies in critical areas through a lend-lease arrangement with millers, whereby the government would lend wheat to maintain a certain level of flour production but would demand repayment in kind.

A Chicago representative of the millers believes the plan will be of little help, since he claims 90 per cent of the nation's flour mills already are closed down.

In another move to lessen the bread shortage, the Office of Price Administration is considering a sharp cut in sugar allotments to the baking industry. This would prevent bakeries from consuming their short flour stocks in turning out high-priced pastries instead of bread.

The American Meat Institute claims there was a further drop in meat production last week.

The Swiss refuse to give up stolen gold and stocks deposited by the Germans. One who receives stolen goods is an accessory. Why be patient with thieves?

Extra Day For Miners Means 35c Coal Hike

WASHINGTON — The government put soft coal mines on a six-day week to build up depleted stocks, thus apparently assuring a price hike of at least 35 cents a ton.

Figuring in the added cost of the sixth day at overtime, OPA officials had informally estimated that an average increase of at least 35 cents would be necessary to meet concessions granted to the 400,000 miners in an agreement that stopped the 59-day strike.

The back-to-work agreement, signed by Secretary of the Interior J. A. Krug and Union Chief John L. Lewis a week ago has not yet been agreed to by the operators—nor has Lewis offered to make the same contract with them.

Operators have said privately they would need a larger increase in price than 35 cents.

Predicts Baptists Will Move Wake Forest

DUNN—Dr. Casper C. Warren of Charlotte, president of the Baptist State Convention, predicted that State Baptists would vote overwhelmingly to move Wake Forest College to Winston-Salem, and urged that if this action is taken that the present college facilities be converted to establish a seminary.

Dr. Warren, a native of Dunn and here visiting his brother, J. O. (Bob) Warren, declared that there is a strong need for a Baptist cemetery in this part of the country. Other Baptist seminaries are located at Louisville, Fort Worth, and New Orleans.

He asserted that proposals to consolidate Campbell Junior College with Wingeat and the moving of Meredith to Wake Forest would not materialize.

Dr. Warren is pastor of the Charlotte First Baptist church, one of the State's largest Protestant groups.

N. C. Lettuce Crop Is "Plowed Under"

WILMINGTON Fifty per cent of the best lettuce crop in New Hanover county in ten years, representing a value of $250,000, is being plowed under, according to R. W. Galphin, county agent.

Galphin said the rich truck crop is being plowed back into the earth for reasons arising from the war and inflated economy. A principal reason he listed as price control measures by OPA during the war. Then, Galphin said, OPA held prices on small crops down and did not allow truckers to make enough money to cushion them against post-war inflation. Today's existing market prices do not justify selling the lettuce, he said, despite a bumper yield.

Lamb Chops—London Style

By BETSY NEWMAN

LAMB Chops, London style would make a good dinner any Saturday evening, or any other evening, if you can get the chops. Frying hot Popovers also go well with the chops, and if any are left they may be reheated for breakfast. The chops may be cooked on top of your electric stove or in the oven, as is most convenient.

Pineapple Chiffon would make a delicious "finish-up" for this meal. Don't try to use fresh pineapple in place of the canned, for it won't work, take my word for it.

Today's Menu

Lamb Chops, London Style
 Buttered Peas
 Lettuce and Watercress Salad
 Popovers
 Pineapple Chiffon Pie
 Coffee

Lamb Chops, London Style
 8 shoulder ½ c. fat
 lamb chops Salt and pepper
 1 onion 1 c. water
 12 medium-sized potatoes, sliced

Brown chops in frying pan, and when they are browned arrange them in bottom of cooker or baking dish, then a layer of potatoes and onions; season, then add another layer of each until all are used. Add 1 c. water, and if you are cooking on an electric stove, cook on high until steam appears at vent, then turn low 1½ hrs. Or bake in oven at 350 deg. F., for about the same length of time. Serve on chop plate surrounded with buttered peas. Serves 6.

Popovers

1 c. milk ½ tsp. salt
 2 eggs 1 c. flour
 2 tsp. fat, melted, butter or margarine

Beat eggs slightly, add milk and salt; add melted butter or margarine and sifted flour and beat 4 mins. with Dover beater or 2 mins. with electric mixer. Pour into sizzling hot, well-greased glass baking cups or popover cups. Bake at 425 deg. F. for 40 mins. If you have more than 4 people to serve, better make double the recipe.

Pineapple Chiffon Pie

1 tbsp. gelatin 1 tbsp. lemon juice
 ¼ c. cold water ½ c. sugar
 ¼ tsp. salt 4 eggs
 1½ c. canned crushed pineapple

Soak gelatin in cold water about 5 mins. Beat egg yolks slightly and add ¼ c. sugar, pineapple, lemon juice and salt. Cook on low heat until of custard consistency; add softened gelatin, stirring thoroughly, and cool.

When mixture begins to thicken fold in stiffly beaten egg whites to which has been added the other ¼ c. sugar. Fill baked pie shell and chill. Just before serving, spread over pie a thin layer of whipped cream.
