W. Cook, of Waynesville, Route 2; twenty grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Garrett Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

CEPHUS C. JONES

Final rites for Cephus C. Jones, 70, who died at his home in Canton Thursday afternoon following a long illness, were conducted at the North Canton Baptist church Saturday at 2 p. m. Burial was made in Bon-A-Venture cemetery.

Mr. Jones, for more than 32 years a painter for the Champion Fibre company, was a member of the Champion Old Timers club and a veteran of the Spanish American War.

Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Lily R. Jones, and daughter, Mrs. Frankie Fletcher, and five sons, Carl, Wallace, Mark, Claude and Carroll, all of Canton.

VERGE PRICE

Funeral services for Verge Price, 60, farmer and stock raiser who died Saturday at his home on the Spring Creek section of Madison county, were conducted Sunday at the Flat of Spring Creek Baptist church. The Rev. O. D. Davis officiated, and interment followed in the church cemetery.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Martha Moore Price; two daughters, Mrs. Wade Beane, of Lancaster and Mrs. Edna Mae Price, of Trust; one son, Carl Price, of Trust; three sons, Mr. J. C. Plominis, of Canton and Mr. Burton Price and Mrs. Emma Seagle, both of West Virginia; and one brother, J. M. Price, of Spindale.

MRS. IDA EVANS LOWE

Final rites were conducted Monday morning at 11 o'clock at the Olivet Baptist church in the Masonic section for Mrs. Ida Evans Lowe, 90, widow of W. Phillips Lowe, native of Haywood county who died at 2:20 a. m. Sunday following a lengthy illness at the home of her son, Jake A. Lowe on the Howell Mill road with whom she had made her home since the death of her husband.

Rev. Nando Stevenson, assisted by the Rev. John Finger officiated. Burial was in the Lowe family cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers were grandsons as follows: Kenneth Lowe, Richard Bradley, Ray Bradley, Charlie, Kenneth, Abel, and Robert Clement.

Surviving are one son, Mr. Lowe, one daughter, Mrs. Will Clements, of Maggie; one sister, Mrs. Rixie Rathbone, of Hazelwood; 9 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Garrett Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

HARRY FRANCIS JUSTICE

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at 3:30 at the Garrett Funeral Home for Harry Francis Justice, 45, son of George Justice and the late Lou Ellen Francis Justice, of Waynesville, who died on Tuesday, June 4th, at a Norfolk hospital. Rev. L. G. Elliott, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated. Burial was in Green Hill cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers were: William Ray, Bill Frady, Hub Burnett, John Boyd, Harry Davis and Dewey Francis.

Mr. Justice who had served for the past four years with the Merchant Marines was a native of Waynesville, but had not resided here for the past twenty years.

He is survived by his father, and a large number of relatives on both his maternal and paternal sides of his family.

Garrett Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Evangelistic Services Being Held in Tent in Hazelwood

L. P. Knecht, evangelist, field representative of the American Back to God Program, with headquarters in Charlotte, is holding services every night except Monday in the tent at Hazelwood from 7:30 to 9:00 o'clock.

The tent is crowded each night to its full capacity to hear the message brought by Rev. L. P. Knecht. As a special feature of the program songs are shown on the screen for assembly singing and many of the sermons are illustrated.

The public is invited to attend the services which are interdenominational.

Dean Parris, S 1/c, Receives Discharge

Seaman First Class Dean Parris, son of the Rev. and Mrs. T. H. Parris, of Clyde, has received his honorable discharge from the navy, after serving two years, 11 months of which were spent in the Pacific theater.

Seaman Parris saw action with the amphibious forces aboard the LST 1035, and later served as mail man on his ship. He participated in five invasions and is entitled to wear the Asiatic - Pacific theater ribbon, the American Defense ribbon, Victory and Philippine Liberation medals with two campaign stars.

At the time he entered the service Seaman Parris was a student at Mars Hill College and he plans to resume his studies there.

This much anybody can recognize. Whatever system gains control of America it will wear a false label.

A leader may have dictators, but they're not out for hands.
