

THE DREAMER

His sister is "growing up," ever becoming more "sensible." But he is still a dreamer . . . forever chewing on a blade of grass and thinking of happy tomorrows . . . forever staring into space to behold the man he wants to become.

The Bible tells of another dreamer—the youthful Joseph. He, too, had visions of great tomorrows . . . that's why his brothers sold him into slavery.

Older folks don't always understand the dreams of youth. Even our parents sometimes stifle the visions that shine in the eyes of a growing child. They don't realize that dreams can come true.

The dreams that are written in a boy's bright face are the seeds of great living. But to find root and to bring forth their harvest, they need moral and spiritual nourishment.

The Church understands your child's dreams! The Church's program of religious training aims to develop character, courage and faith. And these turn youthful dreamers into great men!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the only factor on earth for the development of a child's true character. Without it, a child's life is a mere struggle for existence. The Church provides the moral and spiritual training that is essential for the child's growth and development. It is the only place where a child can learn to love, to serve, and to sacrifice. The Church is the foundation upon which a child's life is built. It is the source of strength and courage. It is the place where a child can find the answers to his questions and the peace of his soul. The Church is the home of the child's dreams. It is the place where those dreams are nurtured and made real. The Church is the key to a child's future. It is the path to a life of purpose and meaning. The Church is the light that guides the child through the darkness of this world. It is the hope that sustains the child in the face of adversity. The Church is the love that surrounds the child and makes him feel safe and secure. The Church is the faith that gives the child the strength to overcome all his difficulties. The Church is the power that enables the child to achieve his dreams and to live a life of greatness. The Church is the glory that fills the child's heart and makes him a true man of God. The Church is the life that gives the child the joy and happiness that only God can give. The Church is the love that binds the child to his fellow men and to his Creator. The Church is the faith that gives the child the courage to face the future with confidence and hope. The Church is the power that enables the child to stand firm in the face of all the temptations of the world, the flesh, and the devil.
