Miss Lucile Medford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude D. Medford, of Lake Junaluska, became the bride of Alfred R. Phillips, son of Mrs. Frederick W. Phillips, of Brooklyn, N. Y., at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Elmer T. Clark, Lake Junaluska, on Saturday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock, on July 6th. The Rev. Cecil Heckard, pastor of Long's Chapel, Methodist church, Lake Junaluska, performed the ceremony.

Weds in Gainesville

MRS. CARL A. SETZER, who before her marriage in Gainesville, Ga., on June 7, was the former Mrs. Martha Moody Constantine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Moody, of Moody Farm. Mr. Setzer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Setzer, of Waynesville, Route 2.

Capt. Calhoun And English Bride Arrive

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held. The bride and groom were met at the airport by the bride's mother, Mrs. J. A. Calhoun, at her home on the Howell Mill Road.

Capt. and Mrs. Paul Calhoun are spending two weeks here with the former's mother, Mrs. J. A. Calhoun, at her home on the Howell Mill Road.

Following the reception, which was attended by a group of immediate relatives and friends, the couple left for a brief wedding trip. The bride wore for traveling a costume suit of pearl gray with matching hat and brown accessories.

Mrs. Phillips is a graduate of the Waynesville Township high school and Brevard College. She has recently resigned as army hostess at Fort Bragg. Before transferring to Fort Bragg she was with the Red-Distribution station in Asheville.

Mr. Phillips is a graduate of the English department of Syracuse University, N. Y., and is a member of the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity. He was recently discharged from the army after serving 14 months in the Pacific theater of operations. He has accepted a position with the Mead Corporation in Chillicothe, Ohio, where the couple will make their home.

Among those from out of town attending the wedding were: Mrs. Frederick W. Phillips, mother of the bridegroom, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Charles D. Moody, cousin of the bride, of Louisville, Ky.

CAR Holds Last Meeting Of Year

The last meeting of the year of the Joseph Howell Chapter of the Children of the American Revolution was held with Miss Marguerite Way, Miss Betty Siler, and Miss Ida Lou Gibson, at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Way, Jr., on Wednesday afternoon. Only the senior members were present for the meeting, with Miss Way, president, presiding.

Miss Siler gave a review of the CAR magazine. Miss Ida Lou Gibson gave a solo, accompanied by Allan Hart.

Following the program, a business session was held, and the following committee named to plan the program for the coming year: Lucile Brown, Allan Hart and Linda Sloan, who are to confer with the president in completing the plans.

A social hour followed the meeting.

Mrs. Eva Robertson, of Henderson, spent the past week visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Robertson on Vance street.

Mrs. John K. Spears, Former Resident Here, Guest of the Leagues

Mrs. John K. Spears, of Oklahoma City, and her niece, Mrs. Jessie League, of Travelers Rest, S. C., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford League at their home, 15 Pigeon street.

This is Mrs. Spears' first visit to Waynesville in 55 years, having lived here for a few years when she was quite young and will be remembered by the older generation as Jessie Chastaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Chastaine, the latter having been the aunt of the late John K. Boone.

Mrs. Spears will spend a week here with Mr. and Mrs. League.

Summer Players Honored With Reception

A reception honoring the cast and the entire personnel management of The Theater in the Sky was given on Tuesday evening at The Lodge, following the first performance of the summer players on Tuesday evening.

The guest list was made up from the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce and their wives, and the patrons and patronesses of the players.

Miss Phyllis Luis, who played the role of Claudia, and is an accomplished musician gave a musical program, which with other numbers featured the evening's entertainment.

Wedded In Wilmington

MRS. SANKEY LEE BLANTON, JR., who before her marriage at the First Baptist church in Wilmington, on June 29, was Miss Shirley Colkitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Colkitt, of Wilmington, formerly of Waynesville. Mr. Blanton is the son of Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Blanton, of Wilmington and is a veteran of World War II, and holds a position with the Kellex Construction Company at Camp Davis.

VFW Post Brings Carlyle Brothers Here In Program

The Carlyle Brothers, musicians from radio station WNOX, will present a program at the high school auditorium tonight, beginning at 8:30 o'clock, sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Roy Campbell, commander of the local VFW post, also announces that the next regular meeting of the unit will be Monday night at the armory. All members and veterans with foreign service are invited to attend.

Carroll Grahl, HA 1/c Discharged From Navy

Carroll Grahl, HA first class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Grahl, of Waynesville, has been discharged from the Navy at the Naval Station at Norfolk, Va. He entered the Navy in January, 1945, and took his boot training at Bainbridge, Md. He was kept there following his training and served in the naval hospital for several months.

From Bainbridge he was transferred to Beaufort, S. C., and later to the Naval Air Station at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and from there to Norfolk. At the Norfolk Naval Station he was assigned to the USS Wisconsin for a tour of duty in the Atlantic and the Caribbean, then back to Norfolk.

He was a student at the Waynesville Township high school at the time he volunteered in the service.

A court ruled that a man was not insane because he married 15 times—he's just a glutton for punishment.
