4 IMPORTANT LAND SALES 4

Sparta, N. C. Monday, August 19th 10:30 A. M.

The John M. Cheek Farm. Grazing farm in Alleghany on plateau west of Blue Ridge, elevation more than 3,000 feet, about 7 miles from Blue Ridge Parkway. Located 7 miles southwest of Sparta, one mile from Sparta - North Wilkesboro state highway with gravel road to farm, about 36 miles from Elkin, 21 miles from North Wilkesboro and 21 miles from Jefferson, N. C. Tract of 700 acres, more or less, the whole well watered by mountain springs and streams, some steep land but no gullies or erosion, the whole of the pasture lands being a permanent sod of perennial grasses, such as timothy, orchard grass, red top, native blue grass and other varieties.

Suitable for all classes of livestock and the whole area supplied with pure water and is free from infectious livestock diseases of any kind.

About 500 acres in permanent pasture, and about 200 acres of cut-over woodland partly reforested. The farm during an average season will graze from 150 to 175 light cattle, or a less number of heavy cattle, which fatten on grass and are ready for summer or fall market.

There are three tenant houses, well built of good material. This farm lies in the area of some of the best grazing lands in the county. It is also an ideal site for a summer colony. Unsurpassed summer climate and beautiful mountain scenery.
