Poise, posture and personality, as well as pulchritude, is demanded of Calves, good fat yealers 10.40 to the Miss America of 1946 to be selected at Atlantic City, N. J., on Labor Day. And a scholarship will take the place of the old loving cup. Just to show how times change—though beauty goes right along—above is Steers shown (left) Fay Lamphier, the 1925 choice (note the long stockings) and sagging suit). While, at right, is Bess Myerson, Miss America of 1945, minus the stockings, and in a suit that does not sag, (International)
