Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt Cut Wedding Cake

MR. AND MRS. WALTER HYATT are shown above cutting the wedding cake following their marriage at the home of the bride's parents on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 1. Mrs. Hyatt is the former Miss Dorothy Eugenia Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Smith, of Hazelwood.

Dorothy Smith Becomes Bride Of Walter Hyatt In Ceremony At Home

Miss Dorothy Eugenia Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Smith, of Hazelwood, became the bride of Walter Lewis Hyatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vernon Hyatt, of Ela, at the home of the former's parents on Sunday afternoon, September 1st, at 4:30 o'clock. The Rev. L. G. Elliott, pastor of the First Baptist church of Waynesville, pronounced the vows, using the double ring ceremony.

The marriage took place in the living room before an improvised altar which had a background of greenery, with baskets of white gladioli placed on either side, and floor candelabra with lighted tapers completing the arrangement.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered which included: "Invocation," by Mailli; "Ave Maria," by Schubert; "At Dawning," by Cadman; "Liebestram," by Liszt; and "Clair de Lune," by Debussy. The traditional wedding marches were used for the professional and the recessional.

The bride and bridegroom entered together from the hall. For her marriage the bride wore a wool suit of pearl grey with an off the face black felt hat with shoulder length veil and her accessories were also in black. She carried a white prayer book to which was attached an arrangement of gardenias and white rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held. Quantities of flowers in pastel shades were used throughout the residence, while white prevailed in the dining room. The stairway was entertained with greenery.

The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three-tier wedding cake, bearing the bridal motif. Bows of white flowers were used as decorative notes on the sideboard. Mrs. Ray Sutton, sister of the bridegroom, received the guests here. She was assisted by Miss Edith Summerrow who presided over the punch bowl, and others serving were Mrs. S. J. Vavruska, sister of the bride, Miss Edna Summerrow and Miss Jane Klutz. Mrs. B. T. Price, cousin of the bridegroom was in charge of the bride's book.

Following the reception the couple left for a short wedding trip to an unannounced destination. The bride is a graduate of Robbinville high school and Blanton's Business college, of Asheville. She

NOT ANCIENT ART

The mounting of turquoise in silver is not an ancient art with the southwest Indians. The Navajo began it in New Mexico about 70 years ago.
