Jimmy Albright Enrolls In Bowling Green Business College

Jimmy Albright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Albright, who is attend-ing Bowling Green Business Col-lege, of Bowling Green, Ky., spent the week-end here with his parents.
Young Albright is a veteran of World War II, having served for nearly three years in the U. S. Navy. At the time he entered the service he was employed by the Pet Dairy Products Company at their local plant. After volunteer-ing in the Navy he was sent to Bainbridge, Md., for his boot train-ing. He was discharged in Jan-uary of this year and resumed his work with the Pet Dairy and was there until he entered the Bowling Green Business College three weeks ago.

News comes in waves but this does not necessarily prove that the events chronicled likewise come in waves.

Thad Howells Return From 9,000-Mile Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Howell have returned from a 9,000 mile motor trip through the West, where they visited relatives and made a num-ber of sightseeing trips. They left here in May and their first visit was with Mrs. Albert Krogel, sister of Mrs. Howell, formerly of Hay-wood county, in Portland, Ore.
From Portland they went to Roseburg, Ore., where they visited friends and from there to Seattle, where they visited another sister of Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Roy Dudley.
From Portland, they went to Port Angeles, Wash., where they visit-ed Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roberts, brothers and sister-in-laws of Mrs. Howell.

They spent some time in Denver, Salt Lake City, various points in California, taking their time and visiting many resorts en route there and back. They went by way of St. Louis, and returned the Southern route through Texas.
While the Howells are enthused over all the states they visited they still maintain that they saw nothing more beautiful throughout the scenic spots of the West than greet-ed them when they arrived in West-ern North Carolina.

COURTROOM SPITTOONS WIN JUDGES' DECISION

ST. LOUIS — Their sympathy aroused for tobacco chewing jurors and lawyers who looked vainly for the defendant that wasn't there, two federal district judges here have ordered the return of cuspidors to their courtrooms.

Judges Aubrey M. Hulien and

Richard M. Duncan overruled an edict from the Federal Building Administration in Washington which caused removal of the cuspidors seven months ago.
Judge George H. Moore, how-ever, dissented from the majority opinion and held that sand urns in the corridors outside his court must serve the purpose.
