

THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

Published Twice-a-Week In The County Seat Of Haywood County At The Entrance Of The Great Smoky Mountains National Park

49,500 People

Live within 20 miles of Waynesville—their ideal shopping center.

1946 No. 95 14 Pages

WAYNESVILLE, N. C., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1946

$3.00 In Advance In Haywood and Jackson Counties

A, 3 N. C. GROUPS BEGIN INDUSTRIAL STUDY

Men Nab Liquor At Clyde Friday 600 Gal. Load

Persons Arrested
Friday Going
To Record
Court

State Highway of the largest ever taken in this when they stopped highway near Clyde bringing 600 gallons worth nearly $12,- according to un-

son and his wife, son, both of brought for hear-House the same and over to court transporting and possession for the 90 gallons of non-ed were driving a ed for Asheville, Jones, assisted by

s and E. C. Guy, the site of the old
side of Clyde,
se of the liquid
ed into a small son's bond was set at of his wife at individuals made and were released their trial.

ed Here
t Meet aterial

50 members of district five Presbyterians to attend the conference Wednesday at First Presbyterian meeting will begin with the registration, service starts at Malcolm William church, will lead ers for lunch, the re-open at 1:30

until 3:30. Mrs.
dent of the Asheville will conclude the conference theme is a Stewardship En-

Bank
Fontana Set-Up

anking Commission
Wednesday, an appointed First State Bank, open a branch at over the assets and liabilities of the bank-the First National ville at Fontana.

There opened the
during the comdation.

Return
Haywood
Detroit

el and Sam Kelly office here returned Detroit, where they are two men wanted for an alleged Wallace Sharp and the two men, were deliminary hearing were bound to Super-$500 bond. Hannah

Sharp has not done

er Report

the Mountaineer by er Bureau);
21—Partly cloudy
temperatures today, 22—Fair and

Waynesville temperature by the staff of Farm);
Max. Min. Rainfall
71 39 .02
72 39 .02
73 39 .02
74 42 .04

HE TOOK ARMY FOR A RIDE

IMPERSONATING an Army colonel, ex-private Albert L. Hardwicke (right) 25, requested a pilot and plane at the Army Air Field, at Miami, Fla. Lt. James L. Daggett (left) was assigned to him. Taking over the controls in the air, Hardwicke began stunting and crashed into Biscayne Bay. After they had been rescued, Hardwicke was held by the U. S. Marshal's office and Daggett returned to the field, minus $700 which floated out of his pocket, and plus some head bruises. (International)

Democrat Rally Opens Afternoon of Nov. 2nd

District Home Agents Plan Year's Work

Meeting Held Here In Office Of Haywood Agents In All Day Meet Monday

Six district home agents from the 19 counties of district number one of the State Federation of Home Demonstration clubs with the district agent at large, Mrs. Pauline Totchkiss, met here in an all-day session in the office of the Haywood home agents.

Commissioners Draw Jury For November

The Haywood county board of commissioners drew the jury for the November term of Haywood county Superior court, criminal term, at their regular third Monday meeting yesterday.

Drawn to serve the first week were: Walter Chambers, of Jonathan Creek; Rufe Buff, of Ivy Hill; E. J. Schulhofer, Waynesville; Lawrence Francis, Cecil; Zernery Hoglen, Crabtree; J. Carlyle Haynes, Clyde; Cleve W. Medford, Clyde; W. L. Ammons, Beaverdam; Frank Rathbone, Fines Creek; Horace Anderson, Clyde.

Edd W. Brown, Clyde; J. Harvey Beach, Clyde; Ralph W. Ensey, Waynesville; D. Ray Cathey, Pigeon; Oral Yates, Iron Duff; Roy A. Haynes, Clyde; John Caldwell, Ivy Hill; Hilliard Moody, Waynesville; Howard Shook, Clyde; G. G. Leatherwood, Waynesville; Clarence Medford, Beaverdam; W. B. Green, Fines Creek; Odie Fish, White Oak and Joe Michal, East Fork.

Those drawn to serve during the second week of court were: Sam R. Rathbone, Waynesville; Ben James Crabtree; Matt L. Burress, East Fork; Martin W. Suttles, Clyde; Charles B. McCracken, Fines Creek; Mari L. Cathey, Pigeon; Alen Burgess, Jonathan Creek.

J. F. Rogers, Crabtree; Edd W. Wilson, Beaverdam; J. Manson Medford, Iron Duff; Joe M. Stamey, Waynesville; Dave H. McElroy, Iron Duff; J. Boone Swain, Waynesville; M. Hub Caldwell, Ivy Hill; Paul Derguson, Fines Creek; B. R. Leatherwood, Catachochee; Carmon Arrington, Fines Creek; and Fred T. Peden, Beaverdam.

Haywood Native Promoted To New Railway Position

George A. Jones, native of Clyde who has been employed by the Southern Railway system in this district since 1917, was promoted to the newly created position of commercial agent with headquarters in Asheville, it was announced last week.

Mr. Jones left Haywood county at an early age, and finished high school at Hendersonville. He began working with the railroad as a clerk at Canton, later serving as cashier. In 1920 he went to Asheville as a rate clerk in the division freight office and in 1925 had been promoted to chief clerk to the assistant general freight agent.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Sims announce the birth of a daughter, in an Asheville hospital, on Saturday, October 19th.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, Jr. and Mrs. Bryan Medford left Monday for Washington, D. C. to visit Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Dellinger.

Redden and County Candidates To Speak, Entertainment At Night

Plans have been completed for a "dual" Democratic county-wide rally here on Saturday, November 2nd, according to C. E. Brown, county chairman.

The rally will get under way at 1:30 with a concert by the Waynesville Township high school band, followed by a program in the court room, featuring Monroe Redden, Democratic nominee for Congress and John Queen, present solicitor, as the two speakers. Mr. Redden will be presented by W. Roy Francis, and W. G. Byers will present Mr. Queen.

All Democratic nominees will be formally presented to the group.

At 8:00 o'clock a square dance will be held at the Armory, with three string bands playing. The bands will be Carpenter's, Hancey's and the Soco Gap band.

A record breaking attendance is expected at both occasions, Mr. Brown said, as this will be the only rally held in the county before the election on November 5th.

Revival to Start Sunday Evening At Dellw'd Church

A revival will begin Sunday evening at the Dellwood Baptist church, starting at 7:30 o'clock, with the Rev. George Mehahey of Waynesville as evangelist. Services will be held each evening at the same hour through the following days.

The public is extended a cordial invitation to join the worship in these services.

Burley Quota Voting From 8 A.M. To 6 P.M.

Haywood county's polling places for the Burley tobacco quota vote, Friday, October 25th, will be open from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. All eligible persons are urged to vote, since the growers' final decision will have much effect upon this important crop in relation to price and supply in the future.

"Congress has made it possible for us to decide for ourselves whether we want marketing quotas continued for 1947," states R. C. Francis, AAA committee chairman, "and it is up to us to go to the polls and state our preference."

A high percentage of the 1,500 growers, tenants and share-crop-

Woman Killed, Husband Injured In Auto Collision Here Sat. Night

Mrs. Mary Frady Is Victim Of Latest Accident On Pigeon Street

Mrs. Mary Frady, 58, was killed and her husband, Liner Frady, was critically injured around 7 o'clock Saturday night when they were struck by an automobile on the Pigeon road about a mile from Waynesville, near the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Siler. They were walking east and the car was traveling in the same direction.

James Franklin, 21, of the Francis Cove section, was given as the name of the driver of the car by Sheriff R. V. Welch.

Franklin is being held in the Haywood county jail in connection with the accident.

No date has as yet been set for the hearing, it was learned from the sheriff's department, the hearing pending the condition of Mr. Frady.

Mrs. Frady was pronounced dead on arrival at Haywood County hospital, where she was taken immediately following the accident. Mr. Frady was reported by his attending physician to have suffered a compound fracture of the leg, fractured ribs and possible internal injuries. He has been in a critical condition since the accident.

Investigating the case were State Highway Patrolman E. W. Jones, and Wade McDaniel and John Kerley, deputies from the sheriff's department, who stated that the automobile in which Franklin was riding after striking the couple overturned in the ditch.

Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Frady are incomplete, due to the grave condition of Mr. Frady.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Frady is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Grady Sisk and Miss Polly Frady; two sons, Liner Frady, Jr., and Everett Frady; one step-daughter, Mrs. Willie May Frady Palmer, all of Waynesville, Route 2; one brother, Tom Forga of Gastonia; two sisters, Mrs. Ira Reece, of Waynesville, and Mrs. Clarence Edwards, of Lake Junaluska, and five grandchildren.

Garrett Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

Local W.O.W. Presents Flag To High School

Rhododendron Camp of the Woodmen of the World presented an American flag to the Waynesville Township High School on Friday morning, Oct. 18.

Supt. M. H. Bowles assembled the entire student body in a circle around the flag pole, and the W.T.H.S. Band, under the direction of Charles Isley, was stationed in the center of the circle and played "Call to the Colors."

After this, Mr. Bowles introduced the representatives of the Waynesville camp, W.O.W., composed of L. C. Davis, C. C. F. H. Leatherwood, Leo Buckner, Sr. and Leo Buckner, Jr. Mr. Davis made a brief and appropriate address presenting the flag which was accepted for the school by Mr. Bowles.

As the flag was being raised the entire assembly stood at attention while the band played "The Star Spangled Banner," after which Mr. Bowles led the assembly in the flag salute.

Central Elementary PTA Will Meet Tonight

The Parent-Teacher Association of Central Elementary school will meet tonight at 7:30 in the school auditorium here.

Final plans will be completed for staging the annual Halloween carnival on the night of the 29th. A membership campaign will also be started.

Much interest is being shown in the carnival, and a large attendance is expected tonight as the grade with the largest attendance will get half holiday.

Vice-President 18 Youths Of Haywood Will Enter Beef Show

MISS MARY H. ELMORE, teacher of biology and general science at the Waynesville Township high school, who was elected vice-president of the 12th district of the Young Democrats at the meeting recently held in Asheville. She is a native of Franklin and attended the meeting in Asheville as a delegate from Macon County. Miss Elmore has been prominently identified with the Young Democrats and has been a delegate to a number of state and regional group meetings.

Haywood Group To Attend Library Meet

Librarians And Trustee Members Of County And School Institutions To Go To Asheville

Miss Margaret Johnston, county librarian and her assistant, Mrs. James Atkins, Jr., are scheduled to attend the Southeastern Library association in its twelfth biennial conference to be held in Asheville from Oct. 23 through the 26th. Miss Johnston will attend the entire conference, but Mrs. Atkins will attend the conference on Friday.

Other librarians from this area who will attend are Mrs. Lois Neal, librarian at the Waynesville Township high school library and Miss Margaret Boyd, librarian at the Bethel high school.

Others from the county who are expected to attend the trustee's luncheon on Thursday at the Battery Park roof garden are George A. Brown, Jr., Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn and Glenn Palmer, members of the Haywood County Library board of trustees. The speaker will be William T. Polk, of Greensboro, who will speak on "What's in a Library."

Attendance at the meeting from the nine Southeastern states in the area will include librarians, trustees, and friends of libraries.

Any person who is interested in better library service is invited to attend the meetings and view the book exhibits, most of which will be held in the Asheville auditorium, it was learned from Miss Johnston.

The Haywood County library will be closed on Friday during the day when Mrs. Atkins is attending the conference.

Of special interest to Haywood county citizens will be the exhibit from the county library, which will include a complete story of the Cherokee Reading Club and other projects of the library.

8-4 and F.F.A. Members To Sell Animals in Biltmore October 23-24

Eight 4-H and ten FFA members from Haywood county will enter baby beef in the Fat Stock Show and Sale to be held Wednesday and Thursday at Planters Warehouse in Biltmore, reports assistant county agent Bill Robinson.

Several prospective buyers from the county and other interested persons will attend the show as well.

Ted Francis of the Waynesville 4-H club, whose steer won first prize at the recent Haywood County Livestock Show, will enter the Buncombe county show. The Hereford calf of Leslie Davis, young Waynesville 4-H member who died from a recent accident while riding a bicycle, will be entered by Wade Francis.

Hugh K. Terrell, Donald McCracken, Jack and Neal Stamey from the Bethel 4-H club; Howell Brown and Jimmy Howell of the Clyde club; and Woody Best of Crabtree, who enter animals in the show. Wayne Corpening and Mr. Robinson will accompany them.

Five members of the Clyde FFA chapter, with agriculture teacher R. C. Evans, and five members of the Crabtree chapter, accompanied by B. F. Nesbitt, will enter the show and sale.

Prizes will be awarded in four main divisions, with judging to begin at 1 p. m. Wednesday. The sale will start the same time Thursday. Sponsors of the show are the N. C. Bankers Association and the Asheville Chamber of Commerce.

Among those attending the meeting included: T. N. Hubbuch, M. L. Dickinson, and I. N. Childs, of Knoxville TVA office, Ed A. Conover and James L. Hayle, and Mrs. Hayle, of the state planning commission, Raleigh; Philip Swartz, of the state department of conservation and development; G. A. Jones, Southern Railway, Asheville; Art Jones, Asheville Chamber of Commerce; Percy Ferebee, of Andrews, president Western North Carolina Communities Associates; C. M. Douglas, of Brevard, secretary of W. N. C. A., C. R. Freed, of Murphy.

Those from Waynesville registering for the meeting included Mr. Ray, Mr. Sims, Claude N. Allen, William Medford, Jonathan Woody, and W. Curtis Russ.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Towles On Sunday, 19th

Funeral services were conducted at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Parker's Chapel, Methodist church, in the Crabtree section for Mrs. Minnie Campbell Towles, 73, widow of John D. Towles, of Crabtree, who died at 7:15 a. m. Saturday at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Towles near Candler. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Rev. C. O. Nowell, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. T. A. Groce, of Asheville, and Rev. James McChesney, pastor of Oak Forest Presbyterian church on the Sand Hill road, Buncombe county, officiated.

Serving as pallbearers were: Troy Moody, Woodrow Camborn, Carl Campbell, Lee Campbell, Paul Campbell, Frank Campbell, Jr., and Terry Campbell.

The body remained at Garrett Funeral Home until one hour of the service at the church.

Mrs. Towles, who was widely known and connected in Haywood county is survived by the following: six sons, Thomas L. Towles, of Boston, Mass., J. W. Towles, of West Asheville, J. D. Towles, of Enka, Franklin D. Towles, of Salem, N. J., Sam D. Towles, of Houston, Texas, and Clinton Towles, of West Asheville; two daughters, Mrs. Hebart L. Morgan, Jr., of Clemson, S. C., and Mrs. May T. Queen, of West Asheville; four brothers, C. E. Campbell, of Whittier, Thomas L. Campbell, Frank Campbell and Jarvis Campbell, all of Waynesville; three sisters, Mrs. C. B. Camborn, of West Asheville, Mrs. Lucy Reagan, of Long Island, N. Y., and Mrs. D. O. Platt, of Dellwood.

Jack Davis, ACMM Home For 15-Day Leave

Jack Davis, ACMM, U. S. Navy, is spending a 15-day leave here with his family. He is now stationed at the Naval Air Base in Norfolk, Va. Entering the service eight years ago Chief Petty Officer Davis has served in waters in all parts of the world.

During World War II he served in both the Atlantic and the Pacific theaters.

State Units And TVA Get Plans Started Here Monday

Physical Advantages, Labor Supply In 11 W. N. C. Counties To Be Studied

A thorough 11-county industrial survey was launched here Monday at a luncheon meeting, with tentative plans of completing the work soon after the first of the year.

Representatives of TVA, the State Planning Commission, the state Department of Conservation and Development and the recently organized Western North Carolina Communities Associates spent several hours mapping plans for launching the survey covering Henderson, Buncombe, Madison, Haywood, Jackson, Swain, Macon, Graham, Clay, Transylvania and Cherokee counties. The survey will be on the 11-county area basis, broken down to even the smallest communities, according to the plans adopted here Monday afternoon.

Included in the information to be recorded, will be the rainfall, temperatures, stream flow, content of water, the soils, and potential labor markets. These are but a few of the scores of details the survey will embrace.

The survey is being made for the purpose of providing potential industries with complete and accurate information regarding the area.

The group met here as the guests of the Waynesvilles Chamber of Commerce, and were welcomed by Charles Ray, vice president of W.N.C.A. At the meeting, Ed Sims, president of the Chamber of Commerce presided during the luncheon, and then turned the meeting over to Percy Ferebee, president of W.N.C.A.

Among those attending the meeting included: T. N. Hubbuch, M. L. Dickinson, and I. N. Childs, of Knoxville TVA office, Ed A. Conover and James L. Hayle, and Mrs. Hayle, of the state planning commission, Raleigh; Philip Swartz, of the state department of conservation and development; G. A. Jones, Southern Railway, Asheville; Art Jones, Asheville Chamber of Commerce; Percy Ferebee, of Andrews, president Western North Carolina Communities Associates; C. M. Douglas, of Brevard, secretary of W. N. C. A., C. R. Freed, of Murphy.

Those from Waynesville registering for the meeting included Mr. Ray, Mr. Sims, Claude N. Allen, William Medford, Jonathan Woody, and W. Curtis Russ.

Market Reports

Eggs and Poultry
The Farmers Exchange: Eggs 55c a dozen; fryers and broilers 25c a pound; hens 23c. Asheville market, eggs, receipts light. Market steady. U. S. grade A large 63c; A medium 51c; U. S. grade B large 51c; and grade C 32c. Live poultry, Asheville, market about steady. Broilers and fryers 40c; heavy hens, weaker at 25 to 28c, and old roosters 18 to 20c.

Various Products
The Farmers Federation: Potatoes, $2.10. Black walnuts, $3.25 per 100 lbs.

Apples, Atlanta, market steady. Boxes 2 1/2 inch minimum, Virginia Delicious and Staymans, $3.50 to $4.00; 2 1/2 inch minimum, Jonathan, few $3.00. West Virginia and Virginia 2 1/2 inch minimum, Staymans, $3.25; 2 1/2 inch minimum Yorks, $3.75; Grimes, $3.00. N. C. Rome U. S. No. 1, large to very large, $3.00 to $3.50, few low at $2.75. Bulk per bushel, various varieties from Ga., Va., West Va., and N. C., poor to ordinary quality, $1.25 to $1.50.

Cabbage, Atlanta, market dull. N. C. 50 lb. sack domestic round type, many white, $1.25 to $1.50. Few green $1.65. S. C. green $1.40 to $1.75.

Sweet potatoes, Atlanta, market about steady. Ala. and Ga. bushel baskets Puerto Rico, $2.00 to $2.25. Few best higher. Poor large and (Continued on Page Two)