

Miss Clauson, Bride-Elect, Honored With Tea Given Yesterday Afternoon

Mrs. Hilliard B. Atkins, Miss Helen Ray, Miss Frances Ray and Miss Rosalyn Ray entertained with a tea Thursday afternoon at their home on South Main Street as a courtesy to Miss Laura Mae Clauson, bride-elect whose marriage to William Shelton Ray, brother of the hostesses, will take place in November.

For the occasion the residence was arranged throughout with bowls of flowers. In the entrance hall and living room gladioli and chrysanthemums in autumnal shades lent a decorative note. In the dining room the bridal motif was used with the tea table centered with an arrangement of white pompons and greenery. The table was covered with a lace cloth and the appointments were in silver, with white tapers in holders placed at either side. Bowls of white gladioli graced the sideboard and auxiliary tables.

The hostesses received in the living room and with them were the bride-elect and her mother, Mrs. Eric Thomas Clauson. All wore corsages of chrysanthemums and roses.

Greeting the guests at the entrance were Mrs. Charles E. Ray, Jr. during the first hour and Mrs. J. Wilfred Ray during the second hour.

Inviting the callers into the dining room from four to five was Mrs. Whitener Prevost and Mrs. Felix Stovall received from five to six.

Presiding at the tea table from four to five were Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn and Mrs. Richard N. Barber, Jr. during the first hour and Mrs. Clyde H. Ray and Mrs. Charles E. Quinlan from five to six. Also receiving here were Mrs. M. H. Bowles from 4 to 5 and Mrs. Ralph
