Gracious Gown

For very formal occasions.

By VERA WINSTON

DESIGNED to grace the most formal occasion is this beautiful evening gown, gracious and dignified. The bodice is swathed in shining black satin with a halter neckline. A tunic effect is achieved on the voluminous black lace skirt by satin which goes all the way round in back, and stops short to leave an unbroken panel of the lace in front.

Miss Robina Miller will leave on Friday for Griffin, Ga. where she will spend Christmas with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Niles.

Miss Betsy Siler, who is attending St. Mary's Junior College, Raleigh, will arrive home this week to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Siler.

Dwight Beatty, who is a student at Western Carolina Teachers College, has arrived to spend the Christmas holidays with his mother here.

'Good' Forgeries

LONDON — (AP) — Maurice Utrillo, French painter, asked by the police if pictures bearing his name were forgeries, said: "They are so good I can hardly tell."

Mrs. Andrew Moore Gives $200 To Crossnore In Memory of Son

Presentation Of Scholarships Made Through Local DAR Chapter Here

Miss Margaret Stringfield was in charge of the program of the December meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which was held with Mrs. T. Lemoir Gwyn on Friday afternoon. Mrs. W. F. Swift, regent, presided. Miss Stringfield presented three of her music students from the Clyde high school in the following program: Violin duet, "Our Boys," by Sousa, and "America's Front," by Sousa, played by Arthur Moon and Joseph Medford, accompanied by Miss Stringfield at the piano; two piano solos, "Narcissus," by Nevin and "To a Wild Rose," McDowell, by Doris Graham. Two violin solos with Miss Stringfield as accompanist, "Blue Danube Waltz," and an "Irish Washerwoman," two old favorites of the late Mrs. W. W. Stringfield. The program closed with the singing of "Holy Night," by the group. Announcement was made by the regent of four scholarships totaling $200, given to Crossnore school endorsed by DAR by Mrs. Andrew Moore, of Greenville, S. C., the former Miss Miriam Welch, of Waynesville. The scholarships were presented through the chapter, of which Mrs. Moore is a member, in memory of her son Thomas Evans Moore, who was killed while a student at a school in Virginia. A rising vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Moore for the gift.

Announcement was made by Mrs. J. F. Abel, chairman of Crossnore school that boxes of clothing valued at $25.00 had been sent to the school in the name of the chapter by Miss Nanette Jones and Miss S. A. Jones.

The secretary read a Christmas card from Mrs. Eugene Talmadge, president general of the National Society, and another from the state regent of South Carolina.

The agent displayed a copy of the Bill of Rights sent by the War Finance Division to the chapter in recognition of a 90 per cent membership purchase of war bonds and stamps.

Mrs. Chas. E. Quinlan made a plea for more subscriptions to the national magazine and urged that two copies be taken by the chapter one for the county library and another for the chapter regent.

A collection was taken of gifts brought by the members for distribution at the Veterans hospital in Asheville, which had been asked by the state chairman.

Among the guests at the meeting were: Mrs. Nettie White of Richmond, Va.; Mrs. J. H. Way, III, of Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Paul Townsend, Mrs. F. G. Rippetoe, Mrs. Sam Queen, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Jr., and Mrs. Maria Love Mitchell.

Miss Anne Albright, dean of Women at Western Carolina Teachers College, has arrived to spend the Yuletide season with her sisters, Mrs. M. G. Samey and Mrs. Dwight Beatty.

East Waynesville PTA To Have Program

The East Waynesville Parent Teacher Association will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock, with Mrs. Albert Abel, president presiding. The fourth grade under the direction of Mrs. S. E. Connaster, will present a Christmas program. All members are urged to be present.

Captain and Mrs. Phillip D. Bunn, of Seattle, Wash., are visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Asbury Howell. They arrived Friday and will remain in Waynesville until after the Christmas holidays.
