

TO CHURCH SOMEWHERE EVERY SUNDAY

At The Churches

WAYNESVILLE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. Malcolm Williamson, Pastor
Sunday School at 10 o'clock, with Whitener Prevoist, superintendent. Classes for all ages, including a new class for young adults.
Morning worship at 11 o'clock, with the sermon entitled, "Sodom, Gomorrah and Reno." The sermon will deal with sins of our day and will be based upon recent observations of the pastor in one of the most widely-publicized cities of the West.
Youth Fellowship service at 6:30 p. m.

DELLWOOD METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. J. E. B. Houses, Pastor
The third Fifth Sunday circuit-wide meeting will be held at the Maggie church on Sunday, June 29. Each church in the charge is asked to meet for Sunday school at 10 o'clock at their own church and, following adjournment, go to the Maggie church for the joint session.

The program for the day will be as follows: Rev. W. M. Rathbone, of Morganton, will preach at 11 o'clock; Rev. Fred L. Setzer, of Concord, and Rev. Charlie McHaffey of Bristol, Tenn., are expected to be present and take part in the worship services of the day.

The three visiting pastors entered the ministry from the Maggie church. Another former pastor of Maggie, Rev. C. C. Williams, of Canton, will be present for the services.

Each church of the circuit will contribute in song or in some other way to the services.

Each family in the charge is asked to bring a basket of dinner and the host church will provide lemonade and coffee for the noon-day meal.

We extend a most cordial invitation to our sister Baptist church in Maggie to worship with us and hear the men who once were boys in their community. Our doors are open to the public.

HAZELWOOD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. S. R. Crackett, Pastor
The pastor will preach Sunday morning at the Bethel Presbyterian church. The night service at Hazelwood will be called off in order that the pastor and congregation may attend the community service at the high school.

Sunday School at 10 a. m. with Lawson Summerrow, superintendent.
Prayer meeting Wednesday at 8 p. m.

The Daily Vacation Bible school, recently concluded, while hardly coming up to our past record in attendance, showed a sustained interest on the part of the children, and Miss Gilreath proved to be a very popular and efficient leader.

Sunday School Lesson

Enduring Contributions of the Nation

HIGHLIGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for June 29 is II Chronicles 5-6; Psalm 119:9-16, 105-112; Isaiah 2:1-5; Micah 6, the Memory Verse being Psalm 2:3, "He (God) will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths.")

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

THIS LESSON takes us back to the days of Solomon and the building and dedication of the temple, in showing the enduring contributions of the nation of Israel.

"Thus all the work that Solomon made for the house of the Lord was finished; and Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God."

The temple had been several years in the building, and now, in the 24th year of his reign, Solomon called all the elders and all the heads of the tribes to Jerusalem for the dedication of the temple and the Feast of Dedication. The feast lasted seven days in the seventh month of the Jewish year.

The high spot in the event was the bringing of the ark of the covenant from the tent from Mount Zion to the Holy place in the temple. The old tabernacle and the holy vessels were also brought from Gibeon and stored in the upper chambers of the temple, to remind the people of Moses and Mt. Sinai, of their many sins against the Lord and of His forbearance and goodness.

Ark Is Brought In

The priests brought in the ark of the covenant, drew out the staves by which they bore it, and came out of the holy place. The Levites that were the singers, were all arrayed in white linen and had cymbals and psalteries and harps. They stood at the east end of the altar, and with them were one hundred and twenty priests "sounding with trumpets."

Now it came to pass that when the trumpeters and singers lifted up their voices and the other instruments sounded, praising the Lord, saying, "For He is good; for His mercy endureth forever," that the temple filled with a cloud so that the priests could not stand to minister.

Solomon said, "The Lord hath said that He would dwell in the thick darkness. But I have built a house and habitation for Thee, and a place for Thy dwelling forever." And the king turned and blessed the whole congregation, and all the congregation stood to receive his blessing, after which he delivered a sermon, reviewing the history of the temple.

Solomon had made a "brazen scaffold, of five cubits long, and five cubits broad and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and upon it he stood, and kneeled down before the congregation of Israel, and spread his hands toward heaven," and uttered the longest prayer to be found anywhere in the Bible.

He began, "Oh, Jehovah, the God of Israel, there is no god like Thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; which keepest covenant and showest mercy unto Thy servants, that walk before Thee with all their hearts."

He asked that the Lord would hearken to His people's supplications, that He would judge His servants justly, "by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness."

Asked to Forgive Captives

"If they sin against Thee (for there is no man which sineth not), and Thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captive unto a land far off or near; but if they return to Thee with all their heart and with all their soul," Solomon asked the Lord to listen to his people's supplications and forgive them. In our last lesson we saw how this really came to pass.

Did Solomon foresee that such a thing might happen, although his was a time of prosperity for his people?

The 119th Psalm, which is part of our lesson today, is the longest psalm and the longest chapter in the Bible. It has been called "the alphabet of divine love" because its twenty-two stanzas, each of eight verses, are designated by the twenty-two letters of the Hebrew alphabet.

From the Book of the prophet Micah we quote: "Wherewith shall I come before the Lord, and how myself before the high God? Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old?"

"Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? "He hath shewn thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God."
