Recent Bride

MRS. JOHN L. ROBERTS, who was before her marriage Miss Marjorie Plott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Plott, of Maggie.

Miss Plott Is Married To Eugene Roberts

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Plott have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marjorie C. Plott, to Eugene M. Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Roberts, of Dallas, Texas.

The wedding took place on July 19 at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents in Maggie. Rev. Charles Owens, of Dellwood, retired Baptist minister, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken before the living room fireplace which was banked with English ivy. Floor vases of white hydrangea were placed on either side of the improvised altar.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a blue crepe afternoon dress and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Elizabeth P. Schabinger, of Elizabeth, New Jersey, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor and the bride's only attendant.

The bridegroom had as his best man, Robert P. Schabinger, of Elizabeth, N. J.

Only members of the immediate families were present for the ceremony.

Mrs. Roberts has just been discharged from the U. S. Naval Nursing Corps after serving four and one half years both in the United States and Hawaii.

Mr. Roberts, who served in the Navy six years, is now employed as a radio technician for a broadcasting station in Dallas, Texas.

After spending a brief honeymoon in Waynesville, the couple returned to Dallas by plane.

Miss Kathleen Roberts has returned to her home in Murphy after spending this week here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ed Spears, and Mr. Spears.

Capt. Hal Marley, of Mitchell Field, N. Y., spent a few days here this week with his mother, Mrs. F. H. Marley, at Oak Park. He was accompanied on his return to Mitchell Field by his wife and daughter, who have been visiting at Oak Park for several weeks.

Recently Married

MR. AND MRS. HARRY B. McCracken, whose marriage took place on June 29 at Tallulah Falls, Ga., Mrs. McCracken is the former Miss Elsie Williams, daughter of Tallulah Falls. Mr. McCracken and the late Mr. McCracken, of Lake Junaluska.

Miss E. Williams Is Bride Of Harry McCracken

Miss Elise Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Williams, of Tallulah Falls, Georgia, and Harry B. McCracken, son of Mrs. Weaver H. McCracken and the late Mr. McCracken, of Lake Junaluska, were married on June 29, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, in the Willet Building at Tallulah Falls School.

Rev. A. A. Phillips, pastor of the Cornelia Methodist Church, officiated. Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was presented by Miss Dorothy McCarter, pianist, of Asheville, and Miss Dorothy Walton, soloist, of Tallulah Falls. Miss Walton sang "I Love You Truly," and Miss McCarter played "Because." The traditional wedding marches were used and "Liebestraum" was softly played while the vows were spoken.

An altar was improvised in front of the fireplace, which was arranged with evergreens and tall white candles. Floor vases of saffras and Queen Anne's lace flanked the altar.

The bride and groom entered together. The bride wore a white suit with white accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses. She carried a white prayer book from which the marriage ritual was taken.

Flower girls were Jean Gambrell and Jane Gibson of Tallulah Falls. Their dresses were of organdie with fitted bodice and long full skirts. They carried nosegays of pink sweet peas.

Ushers were John S. Medford and Enos Boyd, of Waynesville.

Mrs. Williams, mother of the bride, wore a sheer grey dress with a corsage of white roses. Mrs. McCracken, mother of the groom, wore a pink linen suit with eyellet trim and her corsage was of white carnations.

Immediately following the wedding an informal reception was held at the school. Receiving were Mrs. Z. I. Fitzpatrick, Miss Nellie E. Johnson, and Mrs. Elizabeth B. Crawford, of Tallulah Falls. Miss Emily McCracken, sister of the groom, and Miss Virginia Ann Lee presided at the punch bowl.

The bride's table was centered with a two-tiered wedding cake, which was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

After the reception the bridal couple left by motor for a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside at Lake Junaluska.

Mrs. McCracken is a graduate of the Tallulah Falls School and North Georgia College. For the past year she has been a member of the faculty of the Haywood County schools.

Mr. McCracken, who is a veteran of World War II, now holds a position with Dayton Rubber Company at Hazelwood.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mrs. Weaver McCracken and Miss Emily McCracken, mother and sister of the groom, of Lake Junaluska; Mr. and Mrs. Ned J. Tucker and son, Neddle, and Mr. and Mrs. John D. Medford, all of Lake Junaluska; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Ketner, Kent Ketner, Miss Betty Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd, Miss Helen Jewel Robinson and Enos Boyd, all of Waynesville; and Miss Alice Donovan, Miss Jean Meyers, and Miss Nelle Burton, of Dahlenega, Georgia.

Miss Edith Wells Of Canton Bride Of L. N. Vetoe

Miss Bonnie Edith Wells, of Canton, became the bride of Louis Neil Vetoe in a service at Long Chapel Methodist church, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Taylor Reverley, pastor of the Southwestern college at Memphis, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burder J. Wells of Pigeon road. Mr. Vetoe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Vetoe, 10 Bailey street.

The church was decorated with native greenery and floor baskets of white gladiolus, interspersed with seven-branched candelabra holding lighted tapers. The vows were spoken before a white altar and the bride and bridegroom knelt on a white satin cushion for the benediction.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Marie Kerr Bell played "Because" and Miss Frances Blalock sang "Always." Jeter Martin sang "A Dream" and "I Love You Truly." During the service Wagner's "Evening Star" was played softly by Mrs. Bell. For the processional and recessional, the traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Lilly Ann original suit in pastel green with pale pink accessories. She carried a prayerbook topped with a corsage of pink roses.

Miss Mary Jane Fish of Clyde was the maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. Her costume was a white suit with black accessories, and she carried a colonial nosegay of mixed flowers.

The bridegroom had as his best man his brother, Frank W. Vetoe, Jr. The ushers were Bill and Bob Wells, brother and cousin of the bride, Howard Rowe of Raleigh, and Tate Barlow.

The bride's mother wore a pale gray dress with accessories of navy blue and a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a pale blue dress with matching hat and a corsage of pink carnations.

A rehearsal supper and cake cutting was given by the bride's parents the night before the wedding on the lawn at their home.

Mrs. William Blalock of Orlando, Fla., great aunt of the bride-elect, cut the wedding cake after the first slice had been cut by the bridal couple. The knife used was a gift to the bridegroom's maternal grandparents on their wedding day in 1882.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mrs. H. B. Smith of Columbia, S. C., aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. William Blalock of Orlando, Fla., great-aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rowe, of Monroe, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom.

Immediately after the wedding ceremony the bridal couple left by car and private plane for a ten-day trip to summer resorts in Wisconsin. Upon their return they will make their home in Canton, where both hold positions with the Champion Paper and Fibre company.
