

THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

Published Twice-a-Week In The County Seat of Haywood County At The Entrance Of The Great Smoky Mountains National Park

Published
Twice-a-Week
Every Tuesday
and Friday

No. 76 EIGHT PAGES

United Press and Associated Press News

WAYNESVILLE, N. C., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1947

$3.00 In Advance In Haywood and Jackson Counties

RES TO RE-ENACT SLAYING

of a detective, Fred W. Smigelski, 14, of Newark, leaves the police station prepared, it was stated, to re-enact the slaying of Jackie Preston, 11, of Kearny, N. J. Young Smigelski confessed to luring Jackie to an abandoned warehouse and to prove he "was no sissy." (International)

Wants To Discuss Trading Area Meeting Here Tonight

Man To Lead Many To Occupy Of Group
An outstanding floral attraction in 400 hills of dahlias may be seen in the garden at the J. B. Ivey home at Lake Junaluska.

Dahlias Now At Best In Ivey Garden At Lake
The flowers range in size from 1 1/2 inches across to 12 inches—one flower having been measured at 14 inches. Some of the varieties are quite expensive, one being worth $50 a bulb.

Transylvania And Henderson Form New Health Dist.

Transylvania county, formerly in the same district as Haywood, has joined with Henderson county in a new health district to be in operation by October 1.

Asheville ABC Election Set For November 4

ASHEVILLE—(AP)—The city council this afternoon passed a resolution calling a special election on November 4 on the question of whether ABC stores shall be established in Asheville. The vote was 5 to 2.

Cannery To Be Open Each Wednesday

Mrs. Rufus Siler has announced that the cannery will be open on Wednesday only for the next two weeks. The open days are Wednesday, September 24 and Wednesday, October 1.

Galloway Is President Of N C Hereford Breeders

Haywood's Largest Breeder Of Herefords, Elected Head Of State Organization
M. O. Galloway of Waynesville was elected president of the North Carolina Hereford Breeders association at the annual meeting on Saturday in Elizabethtown at Green brothers farm.

Mr. Galloway, the largest breeder of registered horned Herefords in Haywood county, is a past president and one of the most active members of the county Hereford Breeders association.

Approximately 200 members of the state association attended the annual meeting with Dr. R. A. Allgood of Fayetteville, presiding.

Those from Haywood who attended the meeting were Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Reeves, Canton; Roy S. Haynes and R. C. Evans of Clyde; C. T. Francis, Dwight Williams, Wayne Corpening and Mr. Galloway of Waynesville.

Florida Man Sees Need For Longer Season In W.N.C. Executive Secretary, Manager of Orlando, Feels Season Should Go Until Nov. 1

"The season here should be extended to the first of November," A. C. Slaughter, executive secretary and manager of the Greater Orlando Chamber of Commerce told The Mountaineer yesterday, as he vacationed here.

Rotarians Hear Speaker On Far East Situation

"The crisis in the East is bigger than you think," Pera Benjamin told Rotarians here Friday, as he was featured for his second lecture of the season.

Name Is Wanted For Hotel On Soco Road

Wanted: A name. Claude D. Medford of Lake Junaluska, who with his son, John, is constructing a large hotel on the Soco Gap road three miles west of Dellwood, is wanting suggestions for a name for the place.

Philadelphia Poll Goes In Favor Of New Styles

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22 (UP)—A poll by the Fashion Club of America from Philadelphia indicates that most American women like the new dress styles.

NICE 'KITTY'—AT A DISTANCE

STROLLING DOWN the street with her pet, Barbara Logan, 15, of Hollywood, Calif., keeps a firm hold on the leash of "Pasha," a 7-week-old lion cub. Barbara explains she always wanted one of the jungle kings as a pet, and that "Pasha" is on good terms with her kitten and two dogs. However, her neighbors are keeping their distance. (International)

GI Pay Bill Reported Passed 'By Accident' Says Rep. Smathers

Editor's Note—The following article appeared in The Miami Herald, and is the account of Representative George Smathers' first address in Florida since leaving here, where he spent his vacation with his family.

Heavy Equipment Of National Guard Attracts Crowds

Weapons and the heavy tank were the center of attention on Thursday night at the Antitank company, 120th Infantry Regiment, North Carolina National Guard, entertained the public with an open house program at the local Armory, attracting several hundred people in spite of drizzly weather.

Open House Held By 120th Infantry Regiment Here Last Week

Light military equipment for the Waynesville company was displayed on tables placed around the outer edges of the auditorium, and an M-4 heavy tank and light truck parked in the back entrance, open to inspection. Included were small arms, entrenching tools, compasses, helmets, pup tents, a field switchboard, radios and kitchen equipment.

Rotarians Hear Speaker On Far East Situation

"The crisis in the East is bigger than you think," Pera Benjamin told Rotarians here Friday, as he was featured for his second lecture of the season.

Name Is Wanted For Hotel On Soco Road

Wanted: A name. Claude D. Medford of Lake Junaluska, who with his son, John, is constructing a large hotel on the Soco Gap road three miles west of Dellwood, is wanting suggestions for a name for the place.

Philadelphia Poll Goes In Favor Of New Styles

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22 (UP)—A poll by the Fashion Club of America from Philadelphia indicates that most American women like the new dress styles.

Police Radio Serving Haywood Approved

Community Center Is Discussed Here Again

Two Civic Groups Name Committees To Begin Work On a Program
Two civic groups appointed committees last week to secure public backing in Waynesville and Hazelwood for a community recreation center.

First to go on record for the proposal, now being revived again after several years of serving as a topic of general discussion and the appointment of numerous committees, was the Chamber of Commerce at the board of directors meeting Tuesday night.

Cherokee Indian Fair Opens For Five Day Exhibit

Today at 7:30 a.m. the 30th annual Cherokee Indian Fair will open its gates to begin five days of entertainment for the thousands of visitors expected to attend the unusual attraction at Cherokee.

Benjamin To Give Series Lectures Over WHCC

Pera Benjamin, of Cincinnati, who has spent several months here, will give a series of lectures over Radio Station WHCC starting tonight at 7:05. The lectures will be heard each night through Friday at the same hour.

Harry Carey Dies At Hollywood Home

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 22 (UP)—One of the few movie cowboys who never strummed a guitar or kissed a leading lady, died at his home yesterday.

Call Letters Are Assigned Police And Sheriff's Departments

Part Of Equipment Is Here For Station; To Tie In With Highway Patrol
The Federal Communications Commission has granted call letters, a frequency modulation (FM) transmitting frequency, and construction permit for a police radio serving the Haywood county sheriff's department and towns of Waynesville and Canton. It was announced yesterday by George A. Brown, Jr., chairman of the Board of Commissioners.

Civil Court Enters 2nd Week Under Judge Alley

Jurists Exchange Courts; Eighth Divorce Granted At September Term
Judge Felix E. Alley took over the presiding chair as the second week of the September civil term of Haywood County Superior Court began yesterday morning.

Dies In N. Y.

FIORIELLO H. LA GUARDIA, former mayor of New York, was buried Monday afternoon. His body lay in state at the Episcopal Cathedral of St. John the Divine until the services began. Although he became best known as New York's popular and honest administrator, LaGuardia also served in Congress, as director of civilian defense; early in World War II, and later as director general of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration.

Benjamin To Give Series Lectures Over WHCC

Pera Benjamin, of Cincinnati, who has spent several months here, will give a series of lectures over Radio Station WHCC starting tonight at 7:05. The lectures will be heard each night through Friday at the same hour.

Harry Carey Dies At Hollywood Home

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 22 (UP)—One of the few movie cowboys who never strummed a guitar or kissed a leading lady, died at his home yesterday.

Call Letters Are Assigned Police And Sheriff's Departments

Part Of Equipment Is Here For Station; To Tie In With Highway Patrol
The Federal Communications Commission has granted call letters, a frequency modulation (FM) transmitting frequency, and construction permit for a police radio serving the Haywood county sheriff's department and towns of Waynesville and Canton. It was announced yesterday by George A. Brown, Jr., chairman of the Board of Commissioners.

Civil Court Enters 2nd Week Under Judge Alley

Jurists Exchange Courts; Eighth Divorce Granted At September Term
Judge Felix E. Alley took over the presiding chair as the second week of the September civil term of Haywood County Superior Court began yesterday morning.

Call Letters Are Assigned Police And Sheriff's Departments

Part Of Equipment Is Here For Station; To Tie In With Highway Patrol
The Federal Communications Commission has granted call letters, a frequency modulation (FM) transmitting frequency, and construction permit for a police radio serving the Haywood county sheriff's department and towns of Waynesville and Canton. It was announced yesterday by George A. Brown, Jr., chairman of the Board of Commissioners.

Some parts of equipment for the police radio have arrived, but it is not yet possible to estimate when the station will be ready to go on the air, Mr. Brown states.

Included in the equipment on order is a central transmitting unit to be installed in the courthouse, and remote control units for two automobiles in the sheriff's department, one of which will be in Canton, and the Waynesville police car.

Benjamin To Give Series Lectures Over WHCC

Pera Benjamin, of Cincinnati, who has spent several months here, will give a series of lectures over Radio Station WHCC starting tonight at 7:05. The lectures will be heard each night through Friday at the same hour.

Harry Carey Dies At Hollywood Home

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 22 (UP)—One of the few movie cowboys who never strummed a guitar or kissed a leading lady, died at his home yesterday.

Call Letters Are Assigned Police And Sheriff's Departments

Part Of Equipment Is Here For Station; To Tie In With Highway Patrol
The Federal Communications Commission has granted call letters, a frequency modulation (FM) transmitting frequency, and construction permit for a police radio serving the Haywood county sheriff's department and towns of Waynesville and Canton. It was announced yesterday by George A. Brown, Jr., chairman of the Board of Commissioners.

Civil Court Enters 2nd Week Under Judge Alley

Jurists Exchange Courts; Eighth Divorce Granted At September Term
Judge Felix E. Alley took over the presiding chair as the second week of the September civil term of Haywood County Superior Court began yesterday morning.

Highway Record For 1947 In Haywood (To Date) Injured --- 42 Killed ---- 6 (This Information Compiled From Records of State Highway Patrol)