Published Twice-a-Week Every Tuesday and Friday

Published Twice-A-Week In The County Seat of Haywood County At The Eastern Entrance Of The Great Smoky Mountains National Park

No. 90 FOURTEEN PAGES United Press and Associated Press News

WAYNESVILLE, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1947

$3.00 In Advance In Haywood and Jackson Counties

Nab Thieves ficers

ULTURAL students at Waynesville Township high school enrolled in farm training here now have a new shop ured above, in which to learn the fundamentals of all money taken after the men nd farm-equipment repair. The concrete block structure confessed Wednesday and led offiside the bus sheds at the high school grounds. A Moun- cers from the sheriff's department

Vocational Shop Is pleted At High School Agriculture Classes

a considerable improvement in its physical plant d the installation of some $15,000 worth of power ants are being held in jail. Bond

And Student

Fair Planned

By Teachers

To Discuss FFA

girls in Future Homemaker county superintendent's office superintendents and the chairman

A revival of the annual fair, in which project work of Future

Farmers and Future Homemakers will be exhibited, also was discussed, with a tentalive decision year. The last county-wide fair was held at Clyde high school in 1941.

Such items as calves, tobacco and home-canned goods would enter the exhibit on a competitive basis.

er at Waynesville high and chair-at the meeting. The executive committee: W. T. Hawkins, Bethel,

Mrs. Glenn Noland, Crabtree, and Bob Evans, Clyde, gave their report and appointed chairmen of Heads of the departments are

Jack Messer, fine arts, Bob Evans, idual exhibits in field crops. J. H.

T. Hawkins, snop exhibits, B F

Nesbitt, individual exhibus in fruits and vegetables: Mrs. Doris Reeves, home economies and vidual displays; Mrs. Marjorie Buchan-

Dorothy McCracken, food preserv-

(Continued On Page 6)

an, FHA chapter exhibits:

Glenn Noland, handicraft:

the six-weeks' event.

John Nesbitt, agriculture teach-

School Officials Meet

And FHA Activities

of the wiring and othtments, the concreteure has 30 by 75 feet divided into a main and electrical room. m, and tool room.

high school and veter-will have use of the for classes in woodsmithing, electric and alding, and at a later city. The classes were eck from the old shop the new one.

schools in the county courses under their ocational agriculture abtree-Iron Duff high new shop of similar and music festival for high school new power tools le make this shop one re such items as pow-lers, a lathe, drill press, laner, joiner and shapas various hand tools. ng is one of the proeted by the veterans of the county Board of Education. here, in which the carpentry students of tre and the house wirof Yates Burgess built ural shop with mated by the Haywood to stage it about October 1 of next d of Education.

itself is used only by tool vocational departis directed by John ued on Page Six) er Is Taking raining Now on County eks of basic training the various committees for the fair. Highway Patrol after the Waynesville tment, is now taking a livestock; B. T. Hender and indivperiod of instruction lman Pritchard Smith, Nesbitt, FFA chapter exhabit., W

Sawyer joined the lorce after his discharge ny, and served here 17 to joining the State troi. Basic training was Institute of Governpel Hill, which he com-

her Report

United Press) Nov. 6-Fair this aftonight.

v. 7-Increasing cloude occasional light rain

Waynesville temperaded by the staff of d Farm) Max. Min.

40

Merchants Unpacking Christmas Merchandise Merchants here have been busy ing completion, and Saturday mornduring the past few days unpack- ing, the 15th, Santa is scheduled much temperature ing merchandise for the Christmas to fly into Waynesville and greet the children at the court house. holiday trade. With the season Tentative plans are for Santa to formally opening on the 14th, most every firm expects to be ready for have a "treat" for each child on Friday morning the 14th is near-store is expected to be on display decided.

Mrc

Agricultural Shop Is Completed 2 Men Held For Taking Money From

> Two Phillips Men Being Held In Jail, $1,000 Bond Set

The robbery of $1,640 in cash from Reid Sutton's store at Mount Sterling on Monday night resulted in the arrest of Elmer Lackie Phillips, 22, and Guy Lackie Phillips, 24, the following morning after being tracked to their home by a bloodhound, and the recovery of to where the loot had been hidden.

The two men were arrested at their home near Mt. Sterling a few hours after the sheriff's office was notified of the theft. Deputies Wade McDaniels and John Kerley made the arrest, after a bloodbound under the direction of Cal Rabb of the state prison camp at Hazelwood led them from a broken window in the store to the Phillips

At a preliminary hearing Thursday, the young men were bound and robbery has been set at $1,000 each.

The two men, wood cutters, had cording to information told to Deputy McDaniels. The theft oc-After learning of the loss on Tuesday morning, Mr. Sutton and his father-in-law, J. M. Caldwell. owner of the store, notified the sheriff's department.

cluding a county-wide fashion show case

The brothers confessed to taking Another Electric the money Wednesday afternoon, America units, to be held during and guided the deputies to where Class Is Begun At January at Waynesville, were they had hidden it. It was foun. discussed Tuesday afternoon at a rolled in two packages, covered Vet Trade School meeting of school officials in the with sawdust, about a half-mile Taking part in planning session Waterville powerhouse. The money ture teachers, district principals, and smaller,

Test Farm Photo Featured In Nov. Agriculture Paper

Test Farm here during the tobac- wiring class.

in the picture were Fred E. Mil-students in construction trades ler, director of state test farm Howard Clapp, superintendent of the station, D. Reeves Noland, member of the state board. Roy Bennett, extention specialist in to-Commissioner W. Kerr

IN HOSPITAL

Scott, and Dr. W. E. Colwell, State

College tobacco research special-

Shelby Edwards, daughter of drop," being conducted by the 505 Highway Patrol frequency as well. Mr. and Mrs. Mack Edwards, is a patient at the Haywood County of the famed 82nd Airborne Divi- be relayed through either of the Hospital. She is progressing nicely sion following an operation.

maneuvers.

Routine business was conducted Tuesday evening at the Hazelwood systems in operation in the west- out the CIO-Furniture workers re- ployees. Many of the merchants here are town board meeting. Mayor Clyde ern half of North Carolina. Only quest for an election among the 400 broadcast of Santa Claus over mas merchandise, and by the 14th, ing will be called later this month, Hendersonville, are FM and the turing company at Hazelwood.

"Give That Lady Five Silver Dollars"

DR. I. Q. is shown here in action at the microphone during the ocational phase of agricultural training at Waynes- over to Superior Court for trial program period of the barbecue recently given jointly by the Lions. nship high school and veteran farm courses here on counts of breaking and enter- and Rotary Clubs in cooperation with the First National Bank at the Armory. Dr. I. Q., in private life, Lew Valentine, was the guest of a considerable improvement in its physical plant Evidence was waived during the the sponsors of the banquet, and staged a 30-minute typical Dr. I. Q. completion of a new shop building on the school appearance before Magistrate show, which was broadcast over WHCC. Dr. 1. Q. is shown standing Wade Noland, and the defend- on the stage at the Armory, with part of the autumn decorations in the background. (A Mountaineer photograph by Ingram's Studio.)

The two men, wood cutters, had visited the store Monday and learned that the manager planned a trip to Newport, Tenn. that night, acbeing taken from a small locked metal box and $300 left in it. After learning of the loss on Haywood county's seven-station police radio network is installed now, with final adjustments made this week by H. E. McKinney, engineer for the State Highway Patrol station morning, a fingerprint expert from at Swannanoa, who has served as technical advisor in the bart Post, American Legion and Main Street Here Plans for several projects. in to the store to get evidence in the project since it was formally adopted this summer.

Arrangements have been comwere home economics and agricult was all in bills of $20 denomination pleted for two classes of 20 veterhere, announces Jack Messer, superintendent of schools, and there are openings for 13 more students

> Value Bucross who has been teaching the house wiring class, is instructing the two electrical appliance classes that started Thurs-The November edition of the day One is given during morning, and four mobile units. The main Agricultural Review published by and the other during afternoons, at the North Carolina Department of the F.F.A. house on the high school, office (WBKR), at the police office Agriculture, featured a large front grounds F. N. McElroy has been mere picture made at the State secured as instructor for the house [WBKG], call letters having been

When the appliance classes are The picture shows six leaders in filled, the Haywood trade school are in police cars of the two comman of the county group, presided the work standing in front of a for veterans, which is being earrack of Turkish tobacco being sun- ried out under the GI Bill, will cured at the station. Among those have five trade courses for 100 town

Local Paratrooper Is Taking Part In 'Snowdrop' Tests

Finney, arrived at Pinc Camp, New the cold weather "Exercise Snow-training at Fort Bragg, North Car- SHP cars. olina, preparing for the over-snow exercise. Extensive cold weather Federal Communications Commisexperiments, featuring personnel and equipment reaction to unusually cold weather will outline the

HAZELWOOD BOARD TO HOLD SPECIAL MEETING

WHCC to all school children on the complete lines in almost every but the date for it has not been remainder are the older amplitude munications between law enforce it will impresse their efficiency no the services of an emergency na-

Mr. McKinney remark, that the entertainment features. enument here is of the latest typeand the most modern available type, the Haywood system consists of the Legion auxiliary. of three main ha control stations. stations are located in the sheriffs: -WBKO and at Canton assigned by the Federal Communications commission. Mobile units munities and cars of the sheriff's department, one assigned to each

Sgt. McKinney, are an strong as ever, since the mobile radios have tions operate through towers one for atop the courthonse and one on the Canton police department COUNTY BOARD HOLDS building the control units have a REGULAR MEETING Waynesville Paratrooper, J. W. larger , ange of transmission

The three main units have renetwork frequency and the State Airborne Battalion Combat Team. Messages from mobile units must main units to reach the State Pat-Pfc J W Finney, son of Bert rol station at Swannanoa, from Finney, of Waynesville, has been where the message can be sent to Applications have been sent the sion for a station license and individual permits. The construction permit and call letters already have

According to Mr. McKinney, (Continued on Page Six)

Throughout Haywood

Armistice Day Will

Be Observed Tuesday

Canton Will Suspend All Day Tuesday

Special Program Planned For Sunday Night At Canton Methodist Church

Armistice day will be observed by Canton business firms Tuesday. it was announced following a bustness meeting of the Merchants' division the first of the week.

Stores and other business places, including the bank and post office. will be closed throughout the day, according to plans made at the meeting. The day will be observed quietly for the most part, with in the schools, and religious seron Sunday preceding the holiday.

Memorial services honoring Gold Star mothers and veterans who lost can Legion post and members of broadcast over station WHCC the Veterans of Foreign Wars. J. Reno, active member of the First Methodist church, has charge of arrangements for the memorial

Veterans Meet

Members of the Varner-Rhinethe Veterans of Foreign Wars, with the auxiliaries of the two units, At the present time the station will hold their annual Armistice provides immediate two way com- day dinner at the Champion YMCA ment officers of the police departs announced yesterday by Jeter P. ments in Waynesville and Canton, Williams, past commander of the Gold Star mothers of both World cith the economical, and feel that War Land II, will be special guests. A program is being arranged for eateling lawbreaker, and provid the occasion, and will include special music by Joe Pressley and his orchestra; speaking, and other

Ladies of the VFW auxiliary will be in charge of the banquet menu, bruises Of the frequency modulation and will be assisted by members

> Jack Sentelle is commander of the Legion post, and Jack Abbott heads the VFW unit. Committees from both organizations will serve in arranging the program.

> Leaders of the four organizations met last night to outline definite plans for the program, and additional committees were named to assist in the final plans for the observance

Those who expect to attend the banquet are asked to contact Mr. those in the main stations, How- Williams or some member of his committee early, so the ladies will

At their regular semi-monthly meeting on Monday, the Haywood York, this week, to participate in ceivers funed in to the Haywood county Board of Commissioners movies are shown, are held every month and adjourned with nothing or of agriculture, has charge of the a minister who is widely known at most school chapel periods and highly esteemed throughout. The Waynesville Township high the South, will preach at the First school band will parade down Main Baptist Church Sunday morning at street at 10:30 a.m. to inaugurate 11:00 o'clock. Dr. Barton is a re- the observance here, being spontired Baptist Minister who is giv- sored by the American Legion and ing his time and energies to the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The perhaps special patriotic programs churches of North Carolina in the parade will end at the courthouse cause of temperance. He is an lawn, where a musical concert will eloquent speaker who informs, interests, and stirs his heavers

Dr Barton's subject for Sunday their lives during World Wars I Politics'. This community-wide World Wars. Rev. R. L. Young, pasand II will be conducted at the meeting is a part of the New Cru- tor of the First Methodist church. First Methodist church here Sun- sade for National Prohibition. You will given the main address in the day evening at 7:30 o'clock with know what liquor is doing in this courtroom afterwards. pastor, the Rev. L. E. Mabry, community, now hear what it is dodelivering a special message on ing in the nation, in an up-to-the by David Felmet, head of the Mer-Can Christianity Prevent Wars?" minute address. For the benefit of chants Association, to close for The special service will be si- those who can not attend the serve one hour before moon. Public oftended by members of the Americal in person this address will be fices at the courthouse, the band.

Shoe Salesman Hurt When Car Turns Over On

of Waynesville, manager of the Tuesday evening in the dining epartment of Massie's Deparlment Store, was injured when at the First Baptist church, with the automobile he was driving col. Rev. S. R. Crockett, pastor of the bided with a parked coupe on Main Hazelwood Presbyterian church, as Street, in front of the Towne speaker, House, and overturned, about 1:15 Thursday afternoon

According to Cpl. E. W. Jones of the State Highway Patrol, tire marks indicated that Gardner, who was driving the 1941 Chevrolet sedan of C. J. Reece, was traveling from the business district, hit the Arrington Named 1932 DeSoto coupe parked on the left side of the street-pushing it back about eight feet and knock ing off the left front wheel-and Freshman Class the sedan overturned and rolled into the front part of a 1941 Ford coupe; parked behind the DeSoto.

FARMERS MEET AT FINES CREEK EVERY THURSDAY

Classes for farmers, at which passed on bills presented for cur- Thursday night at the Fines Creek rent expenses during the previous school. Claxion Henderson, teach-

Unagusta Is Involved In Test Of Taft-Hartley Act

The other two cases involved the August 22, one requirement for Rite-Form Corset Co. Inc. Shar-training plans for the winter been granted, however, and this is tion wide importance, the National playees and the CIO-Steel workers; considered the primary step in Labor Relations Board made its and Tennessee Chair Co., Inc., Elizsecuring approval for operating the first move Tuesday to enforce the abethton. Tenn... in which the non-Communist oath requirement mine workers' subsidiary, the of the Taft-Hartley act in labor United Construction workers, had there are around 25 similar police bargaining elections by throwing sought an election among 65 em-

After the Taft-Hartley law was Last minute details for the Many of the merchants here are two others, at Rutherfordton and employees of Unagusta Manufac- passed during the last session of the large displaying their Christ- Fisher states that a special meet-

Business In Preaches Sunday Program On Tuesday Is Completed By Veterans

Business Here Will Close For One Hour * During Program On Tuesday

A number of Armistice Day acivities will be carried out over Haywood county on Tuesday, with DR. L. E. BARTON of Alabama, special programs planned here and be presented.

At 11 o'clock a minute of silence will honor the anniversary of the morning is: "Brains, Sobriety and arrival of peace following the

All business places are requested employment service, and post office will be closed all day. Schools will conduct classes a usual, announces Supt. Jack Messer, with most of them to hold special Armistice Day programs during their assembly periods. Flags are to be displayed along the streets

The veterans organization and William Boyd Gardner, about 35, auxiliaries will hold a banquet on "Buddy" poppies will be sold during the day by the Veterans of Taken to the Haywood County Foreign Wars and their auxiliary Hospital from inside the vehicle, As pointed out by President Truwhere he was pinned under a seat man in a letter to the VFW nacushion for several minutes, his tional commander, the poppy sale injuries were described by the at. supports the VFW National Home tending physician as shock and at Eaton Rapids, Mich., for orphan ed children of veterans. The wearing of a Buddy Poppy this year is an excellent way to express approval and participation."

President Of W. C.

Jack Arrington of Waynesville has been elected president of the No one was in either of the freshman class at Western Carolina parked cars. The DeSoto coupe is Teachers college, and Tom Grogan the property of Andy Conard and of Canton, vice-president, Miss the Ford coupe, in which the front Jane Callison of Black Mountain small antennae and the main sta. know how many guests to prepare lights were broken, belongs to H. was elected secretary, and Frank Hill of Smithfield, treasurer Officers for the other classes were elected prior to the end of the last school year. Jack Allison, another Waynesville student at Cullowhee, is the current president of the student body.

Highway Record For 1947 (To Date) In Haywood Injured --- 50 Killed --- 8

> (This information Compiled From Becords of State Highway Patrol)