In Probe Clash

FIREWORKS finally exploded in the House Un-American Activities Committee hearing in Washington when John Howard Lawson, prominent playwright and Hollywood script writer, engaged in a heated clash with Sen. J. Parnell Thomas, chairman of the investigating group. Here, Thomas is shown during the word battle in which Lawson refused to say whether he was or was not a Communist. (International)

ABC Vote Carries In Asheville

Wets Cast 2,700 Vote Majority In Liquor Referendum On Tuesday

The city of Asheville Tuesday voted in favor of the establishment of legal whisky stores, with election officials reporting the largest vote cast in the city's history. Official returns from all the 24 precincts were 8,839 votes cast for the store proposal and 6,139 against, giving proponents of the ABC measure a majority of 2,700. Wet forces carried 19 of the precincts. Asheville was the fifth Western North Carolina area to vote on the ABC issue during the past six months. Rowan and Alleghany counties and the town of Hickory voted dry, but the city of Charlotte favored the stores. Members of the Asheville city council were expected to appoint a three-member control board at a special meeting Thursday afternoon, indicating that machinery would be set up as quickly as possible to begin operation of the stores. In the last referendum on the question held in 1939, voters of the city favored the stores but their vote was nullified by a heavy dry vote in rural areas of Buncombe county. Tuesday's vote was restricted to the city itself. Asheville was enabled to vote independently of the county as a result of special legislation enacted in the closing days of the 1947 General Assembly. Both sides waged vigorous campaigns and had effective organizations at the polls during the election.

Raps Film Probe

COUNSEL for the 18 film notables subpoenaed by the House Un-American Activities Committee in Washington, Robert W. Kenny takes the stand and tells the group that their probe of alleged Communism in Hollywood is "illegal and unconstitutional." He demanded that the subpoenas be quashed. At the end of the testimony, the committee went into closed session to consider his motion. (International)

Increase Shown In Tax Report For This State

Uncle Sam continued to increase his tax take in North Carolina during October. For the fourth consecutive month, since the beginning of the fiscal year in July, internal revenue collections in the state showed gains over the last year. A report on the October collections, released this week at the office of Charles H. Robinson, internal revenue collector for the District of North Carolina, showed a total of $104,121,905.18 paid into the United States Treasury from Tar Heel sources. This represented an increase of $9,439,992.02 over the $95,681,958.11 collected in October, 1944. Collections for the first four months of the current fiscal year are $36,953,298.28 greater than for the corresponding period of the preceding months, standing at $407,458,443.46 against $370,485,443.46 against $370,485,145.18. In the opening three months of the year, collections were reported as follows: July, $97,000,090.68; August, $84,204,683.70; September, $122,111,718.90. In the corresponding months of the preceding year collections were $82,977,938.00; $83,563,911.33, and $108,261,437.00, respectively.

Administration Plans To Offer Own Tax 'Reform'

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Truman administration is definitely planning to offer its own tax program to congress some time next year. Officials in a position to know made that clear. But they added that details are still to be decided. Indications are that the program will stress "revision" and "reform" of the tax system over outright cuts. The biggest certainty is that there will be no proposal resembling the twice-voted $4,000,000,000 bill which Republican sponsors have promised to revive at the outset of the special session of congress opening November 17. Those two measures would have cut individual income taxes by from 30 per cent for low income groups to 10.5 per cent for those in the top brackets.

Workmen To Set Off Giant Blast Saturday Morning

ELIZABETHTON, Tenn. — (UP) — Engineers at the Watauga dam site here are preparing to blow the side out of a rock bluff in what they call the "largest construction blast ever fired." Nearby residents have been warned to expect the big noise Saturday at 11:45 a. m. Workmen are busily loading tunnels through Carden bluff with 520,000 pounds of high explosive. When it is set off, they expect a million cubic yards of rock to be displaced. It took about that amount of concrete to build the entire Norris dam, engineers recalled.

WRONG KIND OF PRESSURE

SPARTANBURG, S. C. — (AP) — High blood pressure of "210 degrees" caused him to stagger, a defendant charged with drunkenness told Recorder J. Wright Nash. Expressing concern for the man, Nash had him checked by a doctor. The fine was $12.75 after the physician smelled whiskey on the defendant's breath.
