The Worthingtons Are Honored On 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Worthington were honored on Sunday afternoon when Mr. and Mrs. George M. Craig and Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Worthington entertained at the Craig residence. The event marked the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of the honor guests.

The living rooms were decorated throughout with vases of orchid and white gladioli and yellow and pink snapdragons.

For the occasion, Mrs. Frank Worthington wore a silver lame gown with a corsage of blue iris.

The hosts and guests of honor received in the living room with little Margaret Anne Worthington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Worthington, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gaze and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Martin, of Tryon, close friends of the honor guests.

Greeting the guests at the front door were Miss Nancy Killian and Mrs. Roy Francis, Mrs. Clark Edmunds received at the entrance to the dining room and Miss Mary Medford was in charge of the guest register.

Mrs. R. R. Campbell and Mrs. I. W. Ray presided in the dining room and were assisted by Mrs. W. L. Hardin, Jr., Miss Virginia Nichols, Miss Anne Heinz, and Miss Anne Edmunds. Mrs. J. H. Matney was in charge of the gift room.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth and attractively decorated in silver and white. A three-tiered wedding cake against a background of fern and silvered berries was at one end of the table while coffee was poured from a silver service at the other. Silvered foliage and white tapers in silver holders completed the table decorations.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Malcolm Williamson, Mrs. T. L. Gwyn, and Mrs. M. G. Stamey.

Around one hundred and fifty guests called during the hours from three to six o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Worthington were married in De Funiak Springs, Fla., in January 18, 1923, with Rev. A. I. Preston officiating. Mrs. Worthington is the former Miss Mary Gertrude Barnette, daughter of the late James Everett and Ada Croft Barnett, of Freeport, Fla.

Mr. Worthington is the son of Eugene Lee Worthington and the late Elizabeth Morgan Worthington, of Richland, Ga. For many years he has been connected with the Southern Railway and moved here from Murphy with his family in March, 1929. He is at present agent for the Southern at Canton.

Mr. Worthington is an active member of the Masonic Lodge. He is past High Priest, Waynesville Chapter 169, R.A.M., past illustrious Master of Doric Council No. 20, R. and S. M., and past Eminent Commander of Waynesville Commandery No. 31, Knights Templar.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Worthington are members of the Presbyterian Church. They have one son, L. F. Worthington.
