Mary Jane Fish Is Bride Of Bryson Ledford

Miss Mary Jane Fish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fish of Clyde, became the bride of Bryson James Ledford, son of Mrs. F. T. Ball of Canton, and the late B. J. Ledford, in a ceremony which took place at four o'clock in the afternoon on Saturday, January 24, at the Clyde Baptist Church.

The Rev. J. E. Sampley, pastor of the Clyde Methodist church, officiated, using the double ring ceremony. The vows were spoken beneath an arch entwined with ivy and the church was decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums against a background of evergreens. Lighted cathedral tapers were used in seven branched candelabra and a single taper was used in each window. The reserved seats were marked with white satin bows attached to winter bronze leucaena.

A program of music was presented by Miss Jancie Smathers, organist, and Miss Alice Fincher, soloist. Prior to the ceremony, Miss Smathers played, "Evening Star," by Wagner, "All The Things You Are," by Kern, "Indian Love Call," by Friml, "Intermezzo," by Prevost, and "Berceuse" from "Jocelyn," by Godard. Miss Fincher sang, "I Love Thee," by Grieg, and "Berceuse," by d'Hardelot. The traditional marches were used as processional and recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white duchess satin gown fashioned with an off-the-shoulder neckline and yoke of rose point lace. The long sleeves ended in points over the wrists and the gathered skirt fell in a rounded train. She wore a finger tip veil of imported illusion which was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible to which was attached a white orchid and white rose buds showered with white satin streamers and tiny rose buds.

Miss Geraldine Fish, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of soft aqua brocade taffeta made similar to that of the bride with long mitts of matching material. Her half hat was also of aqua brocade and she carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses, and yellow and white carnations centered with an orchid camellia and showered with orchid sweet peas and stock.

Little Elaine Ellis of Clyde, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dress of yellow taffeta fashioned similar to that of the maid of honor and carried a basket filled with rose petals. Her half-hat was of yellow taffeta.

Jack J. Belcher of Canton, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man and ushers were Donald Randolph of Canton, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Milton Brown, cousin of the bride, and Horace Ellis and Sidney Haynes, uncles of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a dress of Beauvais brown with yellow accessories and her corsage was a purple and white orchid.

The bridegroom's mother wore a black dress trimmed with blue and black sequins and an orchid corsage.

Following the wedding the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. For traveling the bride wore a blue gabardine suit with grey and white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid detached from her wedding bouquet.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Ledford will make their home in Canton.

Mrs. Ledford is a native of Haywood county and a graduate of Clyde High school. She attended Woman's College in Greensboro and is employed in the Industrial Relations Department of the Champion Paper and Fibre Company.
