THE OLD HOME TOWN By STANLEY

BROADWAY By JACK O'BRIAN

The average length of life in years, having increased 16 years in less than 50 years.

Herb Shriner is being huckstered among the sponsors as a radio comedian doing humorous homespun topical commentaries a la Will Rogers. George Jessel may have an air show entitled "Testimonial Dinner," the format being a weekly dinner in honor of a guest with George mastering the guest's background apart in the hilarious fashion which has made him the most famous after-dinner speaker extant. Arlene Francis also has the back on the air as mistress of a quiz show. Her husband, Martin Gabel, shuttles back and forth between Hollywood and Broadway the way Mike Todd used to, now that he's both a screen and stage producer.

Mike Todd's lad, Mike, Jr., sporting a lovely red headed model about the correct celebrity traps, with Pop's approval. "Can't start too young," said the man who knows, Mike, Senior, that is.

Joe DiMaggio, head of the "Hallroom Boys," meaning the young bachelors of the midtown mob who prouid about just having fun, has a new recruit to take the place of Eddie Duchin, who voided his membership by getting married. It's Detective Lieut. Johnny Brinkley, handsome Irish cop who works out of Joe's pal's office—meaning Mayor Bill O'Dwyer's.

AUBURN ALIENS RUG (AUBURN ALIENS RUG) - Alabama Polytechnic Institute extension service experts say that rats run up a yearly feed bill of $5,000,000 in the state. Entomologist W. A. Ruffin said an average rat destroys around $1 worth of cotton stuff a year.

CURIOSITY UNSAFE LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—Raymond L. Hartman was curious about an accident involving two automobiles. He drove close to the scene of the wreck. Hartman's car collided with another, and he paid a $15 fine in municipal court for careless driving.
