

Miss Johnson is Bride Of C. Sidney Little

The marriage of Miss Doris May Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Arvid Johnson of Rockford, Ill., to C. Sidney Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Little of Waynesville, took place at 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, March 6, at the Emanuel Lutheran church in Rockford, Ill.

The church was decorated with evergreens, lighted tapers and white flowers. A program of nuptial music was presented prior to taking the vows.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white brocaded satin gown fashioned with a fitted bodice with bertha and yoke of marquisette. The long full skirt ended in a train, and her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a cap of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and sweetpeas, centered with gardenias.

Miss Dorothy Johnson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of blue brocaded satin, fashioned on similar lines to that of the bride and a bonnet of matching material. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of mixed flowers.

Pat Johnson, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. She wore a frock of yellow brocaded satin with a matching old-fashioned bonnet and carried a nosegay of mixed shades.

The bridesroom had as its best man Walter Bolton, and ushers were Walter Bolton, Jr., Vernon Goethe, and Wayne Johnson.

Following the ceremony, a wedding reception was held in the parish hall of the church with around 100 guests attending. Mrs. Paul DeMet and Mrs. Joe McGilchrist, sisters of the bridesroom, presided at the tea service.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip. The bride wore a dusty pink tailored crepe dress with brown accessories harmonizing top coat, and the gardenia corsage detached from her bridal bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Little will reside at 1621 Chestnut Street, Rockford, Ill.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were the parents of the bridegroom.

Two-tone Spring Suit

By VERA WINSTON
Beige and black combination.

THE TWO-TONE suit has appeared in nearly every Spring collection, and the stores report it a good seller. Various and interesting color schemes are featured, but this model goes in for that old favorite, beige and black. The jacket, of beige smooth woolen, has not seams to describe a semi-yoke, which, with the pockets, reveals touches of black seams terminated in embroidered black arrows. The rolled collar and cuffs are of black wool. The slim skirt is of black wool and is very slightly flared.

Mrs. D. B. Bryant has returned to her home in Wake Forest after a week's visit to her daughter, Mrs. Boyd Owen, and Dr. Owen.

Mrs. S. T. Neal, of Reidsville, arrived Sunday for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sloan.

Baptist Society Has Program On Christian Home

A program on "The Christian Home—Our Immediate Task," was given at the March meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church which was held last Tuesday afternoon at the church.

The program was presented by the Ann Hasseltine Judson Circle with Mrs. Henry Davis in charge, and the theme was portrayed as a shower for a bride. Green and white flowers formed the background for the program and the following members took part: Mrs. Maude Jones who gave "Home Sweet Home"; Mrs. Jack Messer, who gave "Influence of the Home"; Mrs. Milas Ferguson, who gave "Building Christian Homes"; Miss Alma Jackson, "Home and Missions"; and Mrs. J. B. Siler, who gave "For Home".

During the business session reports showed the Lottie Moon Circle to be ahead in attendance record.
