Luncheon Is Given At Parish House

A delightful luncheon was held in the Parish House of Grace Episcopal church Wednesday in honor of two visiting guests from Asheville. The occasion was an informal gathering of the Woman's auxiliary of the church.

Miss Clara Belle Williams presided and introduced the honor guests, Miss Lucy Fletcher, diocesan president from Asheville, and Mrs. Thomas Wright, district director of the Woman's auxiliary.

The long table was centered with an arrangement of delphinium, snapdragon and daffodils and an attractive menu was served.

Miss Fletcher talked entertainingly of the work of the auxiliary in far-flung areas and of the church's objectives. Her talk was followed with closest attention by the large number of ladies present.

Those responsible for the interesting occasion were the following officers of the local unit of the auxiliary: Miss Clara Belle Williams, president; Miss Katharine Reed, secretary; and Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick.

The luncheon was due to Mrs. Robert Breece, chairman, assisted by Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Margaret Marshall and Mrs. J. F. Abel.

Engagement Announced

MISS MIRIAM WELLS, of Canton, whose engagement to James Patrick Greeley, of Roanoke, Va., was announced at a tea given by her mother, Mrs. J. M. Wells, Wednesday afternoon.

Engagement Of
Miss Wells Is Announced At Tea

The engagement of Miss Miriam Wells, of Canton to James Patrick Greeley, of Roanoke, Va., was announced at a tea given by Mrs. J. M. Wells, mother of the bride-elect, at her home in Canton on Wednesday afternoon.

A color scheme of green and white was noted in the decorations.

Mrs. Charles H. Branson, aunt of the bride-elect greeted the guests at the front entrance where white satin wedding bells bearing the names "Miriam" and "Pat" disclosed the engagement.

Mrs. George W. Greeman, also an aunt of the bride-elect, presented the guests to the receiving line which was composed of the hostess and Mrs. C. T. Wells, Sr., the grandmother of the bride-elect, Miss Wells and Mrs. E. E. Greeley, mother of the bridegroom-elect.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Alex Shumolis, Jr., Mrs. Raymond Rickards, Mrs. Thomas James, Mrs. Jack Hampton, Mrs. Thomas Goodman, Mrs. Neil Grogan, Mrs. Forrest Brinson, Mrs. Carl Medford, Mrs. F. C. Holland, Mrs. Mark Auberry, Mrs. Melville Fuller, Mrs. C. B. Burrus, Mrs. Wayne Rogers, Mrs. Hugh Noland, Mrs. Hugh Rogers, Mrs. Sam Cody and Mrs. Donald Medford.

The tea table was covered with a linen and lace cloth and centered with an epergne holding roses and lilies. White candles in silver holders flanked the centerpiece and arrangements of smilax and gardenias were used at each end of the table.

Mrs. Howard Hemphill, Miss Sibyl Wilson and Mrs. Ned Clontz were in charge of the register and goodbyes were spoken by Miss Jimmie Wells.

A large number of guests called during the afternoon.

Girl Scout
Council Holds
Meeting At Hut

A meeting of the Hazelwood-Waynesville Girl Scout Council was held at the Hut Monday night with Mrs. W. K. Chapman presiding.

Plans were discussed for the visit of Mrs. Lucy C. Stroupe, of Atlanta, regional director of Girl Scouts, on April 15 and 16. Mrs. Stroupe will speak of her work to both the Lions Club and Rotary Club and will hold a special meeting for troop leaders on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 at The Hut. Mrs. Chapman also invited the board of directors to meet with her and Mrs. Stroupe at The Towne House for a luncheon meeting on Thursday.

A constitution was presented for approval of the council and was adopted, thus completing the necessary requirements for application of a charter from Girl Scout Headquarters.

The following new troop leaders were recognized: Mrs. C. N. Allen, Mrs. Carl Ratcliffe, Mrs. Joe Massie, Mrs. Kyle Campbell, Mrs. Ralph Summerrow, Mrs. Frank Brown, and Miss Alma Jackson.

Mrs. R. N. Barber, Jr., chairman of the leadership committee, announced that she had contacted a number of other prospective leaders and hoped to organize additional troops for Central Elementary and East Waynesville Schools.

Mrs. Roy Parkman reported that the Lions Club, which is sponsoring the Girl Scouts, is prepared to contribute $150 to the work immediately. The council discussed needs of the Hut and asked that Mrs. Parkman contact the Lions Club to consider first the improvement to the yard and equipment for the Arts and Crafts room.

The members of the Council decided to contribute the necessary First Aid supplies to be left at the Hut and discussed ways and means of filling other needs such as curtains, kitchen utensils, dishes and screens.
