Ammons and Miller Are Likely Moundsmen as Haywood Rivals Square Off

If the sun is able to break through those assorted clouds that Popeye and Olive Oil have been pushing off the weatherman's veranda the past few days and dry up the playing field. Waynesville and Canton's high school baseball teams will let go at each other this afternoon, about 3 o'clock, on the Black Canton's scheduled game with Ben Lippen earlier this week was rained out and this will be the opener for Coach Poindexter's nine. He is expected to put his best foot forward, in moundsman Clyde Miller, getting off to a right start as the Bears open defense of their Blue Ridge conference crown.

Mountaineers have one ound of competition under their belt, and in spite of a 1-0 loss to Franklin showed the knack of field ng a ball-snagging defensive team To beat Canton's highly rated combination, the Weatherby-coached Jack Ammons, who tossed four-hit ball against Franklin, will likely get the nod to start in this one. Coach Weatherby said the choice would be between Ammon and portsider Boyce Brock.

The Mountaineers stand two deep in all positions now, and the second stringers are showing up well enough to keep the starters on their toes. Waynesville's substitute infield includes Bobby Robinson. Derle Davis, Don Whisenhunt and James Bell, with B. J. Craig behind the plate, and outfielders Ted White, George Garrett, Janus Fugate and Jimmy Knykendati

Coach Weatherby also ar aounces two more games recently scheduled; Cullowhee here April 23, and dition to the pitchers, were James Gibbs, Milton Glover and Dennis Casey, Jacob Lenoir, Edward Casey, A. D. and Johnny Boy Wheeler, Hilliard Gibbs, William Casey are their mnaagers.
