Farm Clean-Up Suggestions Made By Specialist

The farmer who gives his place a real spring "cleaning" now will not only improve the looks of his farm but will also make it healthier and easier to keep "trim" the rest of the year, says C. B. Hatchford, Extension farm management specialist at State College.

He offered the following clean-up hints for farm families: Gather and dispose of all tin cans. Either bury them or punch holes in them, to avoid providing breeding places for mosquitoes.

Pick up all loose wire. Don't overlook the old razing wire which has accumulated. It is easy to find now before grass and weeds have grown. Later it will tangle in machinery, trap persons and animals, and cause a great deal of other trouble.

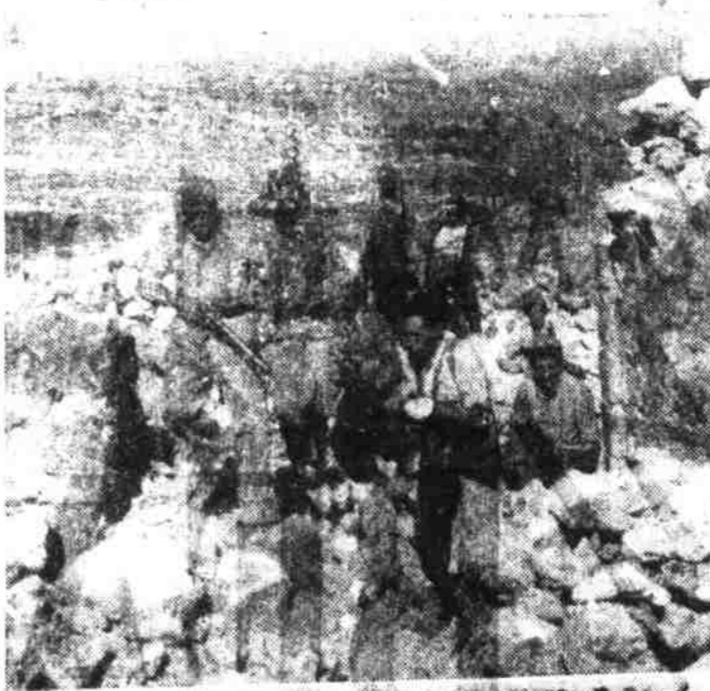

Be sure all broken glass is disposed of, thus preventing cuts on children's feet next summer.

Check fences and repair those broken or falling down. A good fence adds to the appearance of the farm; a poor one detracts.

Right along with the fences, fix those gates so they swing free and easy.

Clean up the feed room, granary, corn cribs, and wood house. Don't provide hiding places for rats and breeding places for insects. Clean, well-arranged outbuildings will

JEWS SEIZE STRATEGIC HILL

MEMBERS OF HAGANAH, the Jewish army, (top) climb Mount Kastel over rubble of the destroyed town after forcing a large Arab force to retreat. This important point, which has changed hands several times, overlooks the highway over which food convoys must pass to Jerusalem. Bottom, British armored cars prepare to convoy truckloads of food over the vital road which leads to the besieged Holy City. (International)

T-5 Finney Will Participate In Army Maneuvers

Teach 5th Gr. J. W. Finney is departing with his unit, Co. E, 505th A. I. R., of the 82nd Airborne Division, Fort Bragg, for the Third Army-Ninth Air Force training maneuver which will take place in the Kentucky-Tennessee border region during the month of May.

Army and Air Force personnel from posts and bases throughout the seven southeastern states will assemble at Camp Campbell, Ky. The exercises will open with the 82nd division paratroopers "bitting the silk" to establish and hold an airhead. These troopers will be closely followed by ground reinforcements moving overland to support this airhead. The maneuver will end in a four-day all-out offensive starting May 24.

State Loses All But One Of Civil War Veterans
OLYMPIA, Wash. (UP)—The ranks of Washington's remaining Civil War veterans were cut in half by the death of Jacob Cheadle. Cheadle was one of the two members of the GAR living in the state. Now, Hiram Gale of Seattle is the last survivor of the war between the states.
The Olympia veteran died at his home shortly after celebrating his 100th birthday.
Cheadle was born in what is now Newport, O., March 4, 1848. He served with the 39th Missouri Volunteers, an infantry outfit in the Union Army, when he was 16.
