

Dellwood Society Meets At Home Of Mrs. Moody

Mrs. S. J. Moody was hostess of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Dellwood Methodist Church last Tuesday afternoon at her home on the Dellwood Road. Co-hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Moody's daughters, Mrs. Selzer, Mrs. Sales and Mrs. Alexander.

Mrs. Ned Moody, president, presided and the program on "The Whole Creation is our Lord's" was presented by Mrs. Ralph Kuykendall, Mrs. Fannie Ferguson, Mrs. Taylor Ferguson, Mrs. Walter Ketter, Miss Geneva Jones, Mrs. J. E. B. Houser and the Rev. J. E. B. Houser.

Reports were made by officers and chairmen of the Society and Mrs. Walter Ketter was elected treasurer to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Kuykendall. The members expressed appreciation to Mrs. Kuykendall for her work in the Society and for her work as pianist of the church over a period of about twenty years.

At the close of the meeting the hostesses served delightful refreshments.

'New Look' In Sarongs

FORERUNNER of sarongs SARONG GIRL was Dorothy "NEW LOOK" in sarongs, as was Gilda Gray's brass skirt, Lamour, who glorified it in exemplified by Rhonda Fleming which she wore in 1926. "Jungle Princess" in 1936. in "Adventure Island."

THAT NEW "long look" in the fashion scheme of things is not confined to Milady, it seems, but extends even to the sarong set. Things now have reached the stage where it is hard to differentiate between the sarong of today and the dresses that used to be. Here's how sarongs have changed:
