May Queen Is Crowned In Colorful Pageant

In a colorful pageant the coronation of Miss Betty June McCracken as the first May Queen of the Waynesville high school took place Friday night at the May ball given by the Beta Sigma Phi sorority at the Waynesville Armory.

The ball room was elaborately decorated for the occasion with paper streamers in pastel shades and the throne, which was covered with spring flowers was placed near the stage.

At the sound of the trumpet the court procession started from the entrance.

Attending the queen as maids were Miss Betty Noland, escorted by Jack Noland, Miss Vivian Watkins with Fred Calhoun, Miss Mary Nell Bryson with Joe Fortner, Miss Jackie Gemin with Hugh Caldwell, Miss Nancy Floyd with James Brackett and Miss Mary Rogers with Mark Rogers. The attendants wore organdy dresses in pastel shades, two each of pink, yellow and aqua, fashioned with off-the-shoulder bodice and long full skirt. They carried arm bouquets of spring flowers.

Miss Dorothy Norris was maid of honor. Her dress was of blue organdy designed with full skirt and off-the-shoulder bodice and her arm bouquet was of spring flowers.

The queen, who was escorted by Tom Ray, wore a gown of white net over satin with full floor length skirt and long train. She carried an arm bouquet of red roses. The little train bearers, Cecelia Braren and Sarah Cobb, wore identical long pink frocks.

Harry Lee Lincer, III, served as crown bearer.

Members of the court were introduced by Jonathan Woody and the queen was crowned by Jack Messer.

Immediately after the coronation a program of dances was presented by the Jacqueline Marley School of the Dance with Miss Bette Hannah at the piano. The numbers included a ballet, "Spring" with Lane Provost as "The Breath of Spring," Sally Stovall, Laura Woody, Ann Purry, and Linda Sloan as "Leaves," and Betty Lincer and Buster Green as "Heralds of Spring." Gail Woodward gave a musical comedy number, "My Old Man," and the first group then gave a "Barn Dance Comedy."

The event was attended by several hundred dancers and spectators. Music was furnished by Carroll Henry and his orchestra.

This Is Hospital Week In North Carolina

HOSPITALS PLAY an important part in the life of every community, and this is national hospital week, when special emphasis is being placed on the value of hospitals in every community. Hospitals, like many other places of business, are faced with economic problems, such as rising costs, and most of them are under-staffed, and over-crowded. Certainly there is no institution in the state where that conditions prevails more than right here in Haywood.

Grace Tallent Is Bride Of Wayne L. Plott

Miss Grace Tallent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Tallent, of Franklin, became the bride of Wayne Linwood Plott, son of Mr. J. H. Plott and the late Mrs. Flora Kinland Plott, of Canton, in a ceremony at the Central Methodist church here on Saturday afternoon May 1, at 4 o'clock. The Rev. C. W. Kirby, pastor, pronounced the vows.

The altar of the church was decorated with floor vases of white gladioli, white snapdragons and white carnations against a background of ferns, mountain laurel and spruce. Three seven-branched candelabra were used among the greenery and flowers. Bows of white satin ribbon marked the pews for the family.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was given by Miss Mary Louise Cannon, Canton, organist, and Dan Cooke, Candler, vocalist. Miss Cannon played "Andante Con Moto 66," "Londonderry Air," "Viennese Refrain," "To a Wild Rose," and during the taking of the vows "Oh Perfect Love." The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional. Mr. Cooke sang "Ave Maria" and "Because."

Trim Ensemble

By VERA WINSTON
DARK BROWN sheer wool is the medium for this very crisp, suave afternoon ensemble. The fitted jacket buttons down the front below a casual collar. It stops just above the low-placed taffeta sash of the dress which has a simple bodice with square necklines and short sleeves. It has a very snug torso which is set off by the taffeta bow-tied sash. The skirt is gracefully accordion-pleated.

Summer Separates

By VERA WINSTON
SEPARATES DO a good and gay job of stretching the budget wardrobe. A nice choice for relaxing or playtime and for resort summer evenings is this duo of separates. The flared skirt is of quilted cotton print, white as a ground for bright roses. Blouse and blouse has a quilted collar. Each item would be nicely with other skirts or blouses.
