RAILROAD GIVES SERVICE
NEW YORK (UP)—The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad announced a new wrinkle in handling passengers' baggage. The passenger makes out a prepaid delivery check upon reaching the station. He pays the delivery charge, and forgets the baggage until it is delivered. The charge is only for delivery from the station to hotel or other destination.

Bob Chuck, ranking player on Michigan State college's tennis team, was a top performer for the Roosevelt high school in Honolulu, Hawaii.
