After the program, the news- paper group returned to Asheville for the night. Today they will visit the Biltmore House and then go to Ecusta for luncheon and a tour of the plant. They will return to Asheville via Hendersonville, and tonight will have a banquet as the guest of Asheville for the final program before returning home. The Soco Gap square dance team and string band will give a special exhibition tonight at the Asheville auditorium for the visitors. The group will be led by Sam Queen and Richard Queen. The visitors have covered a large part of North Carolina, start- ing in at Raleigh Sunday, then down to the coast, over to Wilson, through the Piedmont area, visit- ing a cugarette plant and blanket plant before heading into Western North Carolina for two days and three nights.
