Hollywood Expert Urges New Hairdo For Younger Looks

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — If you want to look younger, just change your hairdo.

But hair-stylist Sidney Guilaroff warns that you must be sure you make the right change.

Guilaroff fixed up Spring Byington's hair when director Gregory La Cava wanted her to look five years younger for a scene in M.G.M.'s "Living in a Big Way."

"She had been wearing her hair down and very plain," Guilaroff said. "It was easy to make her look younger. I just swept it up in soft curls."

"This complemented her roundish face and brought out its sweetness by giving it a flattering background."

Hair-styling even helps grandmothers, Guilaroff said. There was Jean Adair, who had to undergo a transformation in the same picture.

Hair-Do Does It
She was playing Marie McDonald's grandmother and, according to the plot, had to change from a dowdy old-fashioned relic to a chic and modern lady.

"Naturally they gave her different clothes," Guilaroff said. "The clothes made her figure look younger. But the hair-do made her face look younger."

"Her hair had been dressed plainly with a bun in back. This was done to add age."

"To counteract this, I gave her a three-inch feather bob. I call it the "SFS" hair-do—soft, fluffy and smart."

The new coiffure took 10 years off her age. That proved, Guilaroff remarked, that the fountain of youth lies in the waves of your hair.

Maybe it's just a coincidence, but Guilaroff says that since the picture has been released, he's seen a lot of middle-aged women walking around wearing his "SFS" hair-do.

German Universities Get U. S. Students
BERLIN (AP)—American students are again enrolling in German universities for summer courses. More than 120 American students are enrolled for study at the universities of Marburg, Munich and Heidelberg in the U. S. zone of Germany. In addition, 600 applications have been received by the education division of the American Military government from students in Sweden, Holland, Belgium, France, Switzerland and England.

The courses open July 24. They are intended to foster international understanding among university students. Organized around a central theme such as "Man in Today's World," they are conducted in political science, economics, sociology, history and comparative religion.

Next President Could Be History's Youngest

WASHINGTON—The next president may be the youngest ever elected in United States history.

If 41-year-old Harold G. Stamps of Minnesota wins the Republican nomination and the election, he will be the youngest of any president-electives.

If 68-year-old General Douglas MacArthur is the Republican nominee and is elected, he will be the oldest man to take over the presidency.

Youngest president was Theodore Roosevelt, who at 42 was elected up from the vice presidency after the assassination of McKinley in 1901.

Oldest president was William Henry Harrison, inaugurated 23 days after his 69th birthday.

General MacArthur, 68, is the next president, his inauguration will take place six days before his 69th birthday.

President Harrison, 68, was elected to Tippecanoe fame, but lost the election to horse from the White House.

Boy Lifted By Bird And Plunged To Death

ISTANBUL (AP)—The seven-year-old son of a shepherd climbed a summit on the Anatolia plateau recently and prodded into an eagle's nest. There was a scream from above and as the helpless father and villagers watched, an eagle swooped down. With the child in his claws the bird soared upward and away. Those on the ground watched the boy struggle furiously and finally break loose—to fall to his death from more than 1,000 feet.

It is estimated that the deep sea abyss of Mindanao is 20 times greater than the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

Budget Summer Porch Suppers

HAM AND PEA WHIRLIGIG . . . Tasty and economical.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

If you are looking for an inexpensive main dish that's good to eat and extremely attractive to serve for a summer porch supper you'll like the Ham and Pea Whirligig shown in the accompanying photograph. The deviled ham in this dish costs less than fifty cents for four servings; and there's additional protein in the milk, the peas, the enriched flour. The canned peas used in this dish are plentiful and cheap, too, since stocks of them are greater than they have ever been at this time of year.

I was interested to note in a government report that American acceptance of canned meat products has grown considerably. There are more than 30 standard varieties of canned meats and many more specially meat products available. Canned meats contain the same high quality protein as do the home-prepared.

Ham and Pea Whirligig

- Part One
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 - 2 tablespoons flour
 - 1 No. 2 can peas
 - Milk
 - 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
 - 1/4 teaspoon salt
- Put butter or margarine in saucepan and melt over low heat, blend in flour and remove from heat. Drain liquid from peas, add enough milk to make 1 1/2 cups. Add to blended flour and butter gradually, stirring until smooth after each addition. Return to heat and cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly until thickened. Add peas, pimiento and salt; keep over very low heat until vegetables are heated. Turn into 2-quart casserole and top with the following biscuits:
- Part Two:
- 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
 - 2 1/4 teaspoons baking powder
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 3 tablespoons fat
 - 1/2 cup milk
 - 2 small cans deviled ham
- Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Cut in fat with a pastry blender or two knives until the mixture resembles coarse meal. Add the milk, mixing to a soft dough; place on lightly floured board and knead for thirty seconds. Roll into a rectangle approximately 12 x 8 inches. Spread with the deviled ham. Beginning at the longer side roll as tightly as possible. Cut in approximately 1-inch pieces, place on top of hot creamed vegetables in casserole. Bake in hot 450 F. oven for 25 mins. 6 servings.

Baked Pork and Yams

- 1 12-ounce can pork luncheon meat
 - 1 No. 2 can yam sweet potatoes
 - 2 tablespoons brown sugar
- Cut luncheon meat into 4 thick slices; place in center of shallow baking dish. Drain yams, saving one-half cup liquid. Slice yams, and arrange around meat. Add sugar to yam liquid and bring to boil; pour over meat and yams. Bake in moderate (375° F.) oven about 25 mins. 4 servings.
- If you would like to get 150 new, well-tested inexpensive recipes for main dishes send for a copy of the booklet called "Money Saving Main Dishes," which has just been issued by the Office for Food and Food Conservation with the cooperation of the Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics. All you have to do to get a free copy is to send a postcard with your name and address on it to "Food Conservation, Washington 25, D. C." No message is required. It's up to housewives to shop for plentiful foods, prepare nutritious meals and use shopping and cooking thrift to keep expenses at a minimum; this little booklet will help you.
