e Press Box Floor rkest baseball operatives around here are ryin Shook. There may be better ball hiv, but the piledriving Powers and the are the best prospects this corner has news that both these lads have been nomh Carolina-South Carolina All-Star game No one knows who made the nominaoteworthy pair of choices. Wilton Garring sports editor of the Charlotte Observer the all-star teams yet. That announceany day. The game is full of many good who play in it—prizes, contracts, a trip ther pleasant rewards. If the Hazelwood he classic. Charlotte will be watching two athletes this community has spawned. A agers for Shook and Powers.

all tourney is being laid out again. If any here want to try their luck, the last day July 1. Jack Justice, the Canton mandling the paperwork for this end of the son to contact. The lucky club that can av from Mooresville Cotton Mills in this will go to St. Petersburg for the sectionals. ip to Florida-for the Waynesville-Hazelam. All they have to do is win.

ev which is coming up in the American y is Asheville next week. This is the big mer meets go around Asheville. A vicpille golfer would be something to brag heard of only one man who will prob-Asheville Citizen says that Charlie and les Putman, and Bob Allen will be in the e only man who has time enough to make ing and will probably be teeing off in the ked very good in the Beaver Lake tourand the Asheville linksmen know him to

olf and Iron Duff

seems to have forgotten all of his aged in his mad scramble to keep the Philaoating somewhere near first place. Mr. en bottling up his steam for years behind ly detachment, waiting for a chance to of the American League. Now that his ce, Mr. Mack is forgetting his manners. ed an umpire the other day in an argury hastily fired two of his best men, even aid that he ""was doing his best" for "the ck has a common ailment that affects a othing matters right now but the win and hard on the men around him, but it may he Athletics need to come chugging down between Dayton Rubber and Postal Actrial League was not played last Sunday de mixup. The meet was announced on R. L. Hendricks says that the affair will unday on the Beaverdam fairways.

racting things, the softball standings run the Iron Duff team in last place with two There was quick complaint from the he woods. They claim they have won a

e Is Behind Them

om Davis, a young man who eats, sleeps softball league perch this week. lined out 13 hits with Davis and s fox-hunting the other day. Tom says od for the big Bench Hound show to be its way within a one-game distance their credit. High School Pitcher hool stadium July 5. About 300 hounds and the ring for that event, and outdoor important one game was the loss Parkman's and National Guard the Southeast will roll into Waynesville the Tannery club suffered at the played a double header on Tues-

we note that more licenses were put out efore. And the wild life situation in this . In the past 10 years the Wildlife Comkeep count of the trends in the principal ly pitched four-hit ball for the Guard increase in squirrels, white deer, bears, only a similar home run by Allen for Parkman's and Brother Walgrey and red fox and otters. Thinning Creeker Ed Scates put the Creekwild turkeys, wild boar, mink and weas- men in the ball game change in the number of rabbits scampate's underbrush.

e best sports writing being done in this Cannon's stuff in Esquire magazine, parn Joe DiMaggio in the July issue. Makes at Joltin' Joe really is.

Spic and Span, meanwhile, galloped effortlessly along the same victory trail. They outclassed a scrappy Iron Duff team Monday.

ooking for a dirty look, don't mention the night by 7-2 to hold onto their elwood Manager "Sheriff" Smith. Smith loop first place. Manager Earl t was the worst ball game he's ever seen. Scruggs took over his own mound minor league game chores and whirled a neat four.

Tuesday night will Wit wouldn't disagree too strongly with hitter against the Duff team. His old crew is resilient and probably the charges backed up the performhe industrial League—They'll bounce off ance by laying out 11 hits against tional Guard and Underwoods will et a chance Saturday afternoon against the Iron Duff pitchers.

ere is an attempt to organize a semi-pro should be some dust-raising, rip-snorting zelwood and Canton mix.

eek remains the most popular spot for on The fish along this stream and its ek and Caldwell Creek, must lead pretty of Canton plays host to a powerway the flies hit the water every week-according to Mark Hanna of the Nation- the strongest softball outfits in people fished in the Cataloochee area. the fastballer who pitched a noat the same busy clip ever since. Hanna hitter in the western tournament best season the park waters in this neck a few years back, will toss for the en since he has been directing things. to bass fishing, a fellow over in Robeson thed nine pounds, and was caught on the Enka Rayon team in Asheville's post in the Flamingo has won, match. They've found the range should be made to the Sport store on the Enka Rayon team in Asheville's post in the Flamingo has won, match. They've found the range should be made to the Sport store on the Enka Rayon team in Asheville or by writing P. N. at we think to be the biggest bass caught

Mountaineers Meet 9 Foes

ball machine will have its work cut out next Fall-nine tough games are lined up on the 1948

Coach Weatherby said that he still had three open dates to be filled, with no definite prospects for any date.

The opening game with Lee Edwards of Asheville on September 10 had to be cancelled. Lee Edwards explained that they could play nothing but Class AA schools next year and had carded a game with Salisbury instead of Waynesville.

This leaves Waynesville with Sylva as its opening opponent

CAN ALWAYS BOAST THAT

CONNIE ALWAYS CLAIMED

WHICH WOULD

IN 22 GAMES

HIS PITCHERS

TURNED IN 14 COMPLETE HURLING

JOBS, THE BEST MARK IN THE

can't quite catch the leaders. That hits, winners. Wyatt smashed a loop-the season-but they still can't get

Scruggs took over his own mound

over that opening defeat.

son's opener.

MONTH OF THE

STAGE IN

SEASON-

THEY'VE

2 NOTCHES

OCTOBER.

ONLY SLIPPED

Can Tannery Catch 'Em?

A Tannery team that can't be the High School can wild against beaten was trying to shove the the National Guard Monday night

Spic and Span outfit from their with a 15-3 win. The schoolboys of the Spic and Spanners-but Boyd held the Guard-men to four hands of Spic and Span in the sea- day night, and again the Guards-

The Tannery showed just what pinned upon them Parkman's they have on the ball Tuesday clinched the first five-inning affair night when they clipped Allens by 12-1 on a 15-bit attack. Cars-

Creek by 10-3. Robinson smooth- well scattered eight hits for the ing home run to sid the Tannery, ond game-Sam Carswell pitching nery bunch their third victory of only two hits for a 13-2 victory.

victory trail. They outclassed a derwood in the prelim match.

Spic and Span, meanwhile, gal- 8:15 o'clock in the major league scrappy Iron Duff team Monday Electric on Monday night in the other game comes through. If Weatherby is able to tind a for to fill in the vacant date, preseason practice will have to be moved up ten days.

Two other dates, November 12 and 19, are also free. These weekends will be prior to the big Thanksgiving classic with Canton and-if left open-will give the local eleven plenty of time to sharpen their attack for the

The Mountaineers will be gunning this Fall for the Canton Black Bears, who ran off with the Canton club will have the reserve strength they had last scason, but should furnish some exciting battles when they meet for their two contests. If Coach Weatherby can pick up a few rough linemen, his Mountaineer outfit should live up to its past seasons' standards, though, Last season the Mountaineers won eight while dropping three

The Waynesville high school schedule for 1948 is as follows:

Sept. 17-Sylva at Waynes-

1-Waynesville at Elizabethton, Tenn. 8-Canton at Waynesville. Oct. 15-Waynesville at Hendersonville.

23-Christ's School (Arden) at Waynesville.

29-Waynesville at Bry-5-Asheville School at Waynesville,

Nov. 19-Open.

Nov. 25-Waynesville at Can-

Hustling Hazelwood Outfit To Scrap Martel Tomorrow

PITCHING PAYS OFF - - By Alan Maver Locals, Hot On Come-Back Trail, Meet Murphy Sunday NO MATTER WHAT HAPPENS THE REST OF THE YEAR -

Hazelwood's baseball nine plans to rebound fighting back into the Industrial League race Saturday afternoon with a victory over Martel. And the local semi-pros can do it-if.

(1) If their wild handling of the ball in the field calms down a little and they regain the composure and defense

don't go quiet on them in the face of fast pitching. (3) If their three or four-man

All - Stars Hit pitches more iming per man than it has been doing in the past few Hard To Lick weeks. Brevard, 12-1

All-Stars_ After battling through victories, they burst loose Wednesday night and made up for it all.

When the scorebook was tallied serve up at the end of a rough-and-turnble game against Brevard, the local All-Stars had a 12-1 win. They ran the Brevard outfield panting with a 11-bit barrage and made the victory a decisive one in every de-

Even the All-Star pitching came through in fine style Bronson Robinson started the game on the hill for the locals and had the Brevard meup dizzy in the five innings he only three men to reach first base, tory this time only one of those a clean hit In men who faced him down in order replaced him there Manager Burhall league duty) and had almost innings-four in each rack, A butterfingered Brevard nine which made eleven errors helped scoot The Tannery team has elbowed Whisenhunt racking up homers to the local runs in faster.

The last W-H rally came in the Martel and he is very much re-

Merrills, 1b Thomason, cf Jones, 2b Newman, o Bullock, rf. Buckner, p Totals W.H All-Stars

The win gave the dauntles Tan- allowed Brother Wallace's team Harris, cf. In games tonight Slacks will tangle with Veterans Electric at R. Milner, 6 Whitner, c. Phillips, IL Sanford, If Ammons, rf major league game Parkman's Robinson, P

> Score by innings 000 000 001-- 1 Brevard 000 444 00x-12 W-H All-Stars meet in the first game of the sixth when Steamer Harris opened with a double. Dudley reached first on a fumbled ball in centerfield then Lawrence Robinson slammed another double to clean the sacks. Troutman flied out, but Powers hit one through shortstop and Whitner banged a hft flown the thirdhase line. Sanford got another hit. but Ammons grounded out to end the four-run inning It was Elmer Dudley, outfielder turned second-baseman, who spark- on the entry list by June 26. ed the Waynesville-Hazelwood crew with three hits and three runs for been made by Phil Sales, persident NSW YORK - The father-son the same number of trips. Short- of the Open, and his committee.

they had earlier in the season.

(2) If their bats, which have boomed so loud all season, pitching staff puts its back up and The Hazelwood crew should market themselves a win if they can pass muster on all of those counts. The pitching is an especially bothersome problem to Manager Smith. He has had to use Waynesville - Hazetwood softball from two to four hurlers in every game lately. Steadier support their first three starts with few from behind would certainly help runs, a scattering of hits, and no the mound staff, but Manager Smita can't go on using pitchers as though he had a battalion in re-> onsistent performer, will toe the slab against Martel in the weekend's opener Saturday at 3:30, Ab Chie, the cool little Duke star, will be held in reserve if Martel

Sunday afternoon at 3:30 the Hazelwood team will tangle with Murphy in an extra game. Hazelers the first time out, and hopes to staved in In five frames he allowed fatten its record with another vic-

Rhymer and Moore, the whizz the second inning he sat the three kids from Canton, will toil away on the mound for Hazeiwood in all whiffing at air. Johnny Mitner the Sunday game.

The Martel till on Saturday is rells was saving Robinson for soft- the one which could send Hazelwood soaring in the Industrial the same success. He let out four League standings. Currently the one run and struck out one Handamadars are floating along in The W-II outfit bunched all their fifth place. They could begin their runs in the fourth, fifth, and sixth climb toward Enka-held first place with a win in this game-or they could plummet deeper into the second division.

Frisbec is scheduled to pitch for spected by the Hazelwood batting ab h r order A fireballer with plenty of stuff, Manager Smith says that "he'll probably give us fits."

Martel is one game ahead of 0 Hazelwood in the loop standings. The local outfit figures that game U will be rubbed off the books after 0 Saturday afternoon,

Probable starters for Hazelwood 0 are Shook, 2b; Milner, cf; Smith, 0 e. Troutman, 3b. Powers, 1b; Pitts, rf. Robinson, ss. Yount, If, Am-

749 Ecusta Berkely Martel .374 Sayles Clearwater

Netters Must Be On List By 26th

Tennis players from Waynesville who want to try their hand in the Western North Carolina Open will have to put their name

Final plans for the tourney have combination of Ben and Jimmy stop Robinson and Third-sacker Divisions this year at the Asheville meet will include men and The All-Stars repay Brevard's women's singles and doubles, mix-Flamingo race at Hialeah Every visit Saturday night when they tra- ed doubles, junior and boy's sin-ference games for Fordhum University. Among his 31 hits were NEW YORK—(AP)—Sil Burigo, 22-year-old third baseman from New Rochelle, N. Y., batted .455 two home runs. He has two more

__ BALENTINE'S_

For a Happier . . .

Father's Day

Select Your Gifts For Him Here!!!

You are sure to please him if it is a dress shirt, sport shirt, pajamas, ties, belt, or hat (We have gift certificate). Also many other items to select from.

- He Can Always Use a Shirt -

$395

Others $2.95 and $3.50

SPORT SHIRTS $2.95 to $6.95

WIDE STRIPED

T-SHIRTS 89c to $2.49

PERHAPS WE HAVE JUST THE

SUIT or PANTS

You would like to have for the hot days ahead at the price you can afford to pay.

MEET YOUR FRIENDS HERE - YOUR MONEY WILL BUY MORE HERE EVERY DAY!

HICKOK

Jewelry — Belts — Billfolds

len MAN STORE Where Quality Counts WAYNESVILLE, N. C

Willing Windy Faces Towelers

on the mound again Saturday night for Enka when the Champion YMCA team

In minor league play this week, night

The visiting Towelers are one of club by 8-3 the Piedmont area. Ralph Hatley.

the Towelers.

games thus far nybody knows of one bigger than that, he for Fullams will be—take three in 1939 with Technician and last victory.

In pounds, and was caught on the Memorial Stadium tonight. Pitch—They scored in 1938 with \ awrin. Sales at 80 Vermont Avenue in victory.

They scored in 1938 with \ awrin. Sales at 80 Vermont Avenue in victory.

Workhorse Windy Sams will be Waldroop or Nazy Miller will toss men came away with defeats

It was a family fould in the sec-came out with the victory as he

Spic and Span plays Veteran's and the High School grapple in the Tuesday night will see the battling Tannery team take on Slacks

in the major league division. Na-

Fullams is currently leading the week they turned back the Enka

Jones made it four-for four with Troutman had two apiece. The Champion club has won two | Calumet Farms Citation in the 1948 | Fullams of Canton will meet the horse the Joneses have sert to the vel across the hills for a return gles, and junior doubles. Entries