UNBALANCED CARGO DIPS SHIP

THE GREEK FREIGHTER Mafakos lies with a dangerous list in Upper New York Bay after her cargo of coal shifted and almost caused her to capsize. A lighter and a tug later helped reload the cargo and the ship righted. The captain and the crew were taken off. (International)

Noted Speakers Heard On Lake Missionary Program

On the week-end schedule of Lake Junaluska are a series of missionary programs featuring speakers prominent in the mission field both at home and abroad. All the week's programs are held in conjunction with the School of Missions and Christian Service in session July 20-28.

Miss Dorothy McConnell, Editor of the World Outlook, the official missionary paper of the Board of Missions and Church Extension of the Methodist Church, will be the principal speaker at Friday night's service, and Dr. C. W. Ranson, Secretary of the International Missionary Council from Ireland will speak Sunday morning.

Miss McConnell who will speak on the subject "Employed Women and the Church," began her church work at the Church of All Nations on the lower East Side of New York City. Later she went into editorial work in which capacity she has traveled extensively in foreign fields, including Europe, North Africa, India, the Orient, South America, Mexico, and the Caribbean.

Dr. John Ferguson, pastor of Belmont Methodist Church, Nashville, Tenn., will be the speaker Sunday evening. Dr. Ferguson was at one time associated with the General Board of Missions and is one of the outstanding ministers in the Tennessee Conference.

Other features of the program of the Mission School include movies "Beyond Our Own," which will be shown Saturday night in the auditorium and an address Monday at 8 p. m. by Mrs. Paul Garber of the Geneva, Switzerland area.

The daily schedule of the Mission School in addition to the evening programs includes classes, workshops, planned conferences, and vesper services. The School is an annual event on the Lake Junaluska Calendar and is under the auspices of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church.

Bishop Fred P. Corson of the Philadelphia area spoke Tuesday night and each morning during this week on the general theme of the relationship of the world to the church. He spoke to one of the largest crowds of the season Tuesday night.

"There is more opportunity for Christian service in the world today than ever before in its history," he said.

"The Church is confronted with a world of appalling scarcities—a scarcity of food, medicine, educational facilities, and moral convictions." With particular emphasis on this last point he declared that we would not have been in the two world wars if the foundations of our moral convictions had not begun to rot away. "The great problem of this hour is the problem of religious supply to our people."

"This is a world of uncertain horizons," Bishop Corson continued. "We are living at the dawn of a new day, but there is thunder as well as dawn on that horizon." He concluded with a challenge to those persons interested in the missionary movement to see possibilities in the desolation of the world to make it a world where a new heaven and a new earth dominate.

One of the outstanding churchmen and educators of Methodism, Bishop Corson is the author of at least seven books and is the contributor of religious and educational articles to magazines.

The open-hearth furnace for making steel was invented by William and Frederick Siemens in England in 1856.

'Dream Girl' Shows at Strand

"Dream Girl," a convulsing stage play which Paramount converted to the screen, will open at the Strand on August 1st.

The play was written by Prize-winning Elmer Rice and stacked up 347 performances on Broadway and on the road. It played to packed auditoriums from coast to coast for 21 weeks.

It will be a new role for Betty Hutton, the blonde tigress who has handled comedy roles before. This time Miss Hutton will portray an idealistic society beauty, whose naive notions about love and life get her into some merry mix-ups.

Macdonald Carey, handsome ex-Marine, will play opposite Miss Hutton in his first starting role.

Gold Still the McCoy In Deadwood Gulch

DEADWOOD, S. Dak. — Since the days of '76 when Wild Bill Hickok gave his spare gold nuggets to Calamity Jane, the men of this mining town have rewarded their women with gold.

In their "clean-up, paint-up" campaign this year, the boys of Deadwood Gulch made the lowly kitchen broom their symbol of affection and ordered some solid gold brooms made up to give to their women.

The brooms, designed as sizeable lapel pins, were given feminine members of the committees which did the best job during the campaign.

VISITING FIREMEN LEARN BURKBURNETT (UP) — Delegates to the West Firemen's Association convention here got a practical demonstration of how it's done. The Burburnett volunteer fire department put the fire out as 150 visiting firemen looked on and cheered.

NO SALE IS RIGHT FORT WORTH, Tex. (UP)—Two men held up a service station attendant here and escaped with $89 after ringing up a "no sale" on the cash register.

TEEN TALK

Dear Judy,
AP Newsfeatures
ANYBODY can be popular! So say teen-agers Martha Ann Kenley and Earl Cunningham of Memphis, Tenn., and they really ought to know.

In New York to appear on Dick Jurgens radio program, as the result of winning popularity contests in their respective teen-age canteens, Martha and Earl had something to say on the popularity subject.

Football basketball and track "bring a fellow out," Earl says, and make him popular with both boys and girls. After Earl engaged in athletics he was much more popular than before, he says.

Martha thinks girls should join high school clubs or sororities, be smart about their grooming and work in teen-age canteens to be popular. She adds:

"Canteens really have been heaven-sent for the boys and girls. It does your heart good to see the youngsters dancing, singing and engaging in good, clean fun as they do at our Dixieland canteen. We all take turns behind the coke bar which helps make the canteen pay."

There are 5 canteens in Memphis, Martha says her Dixieland canteen is the largest and once a year all the canteens get together and have a "Coke Ball" which they hold at Dixieland.

Martha and Earl, the first two teen-agers to appear on Dick's show which will feature two teeners each week, visited the ice show, the Empire State Building did some roof garden dancing and saw a few baseball games. Martha, who plans to study music in the fall is a real baseball fan.

Out of the Music Box . . . Spike Jones' "I Kiss Your Hand Madame," Frankie Carle's "That Five O'Clock Feeling," Louis Prima's "The Sad Cowboy," Beryl Davis' "Don't Blame Me," Sammy Kaye's "Ain't Doin' Bad Doin' Nothing," Jo Stafford's "This is the Moment," Arthur Godfrey's "Turkish Delight," Tommy Tucker's "Let Her Go," Roy Acuff's "The World Can't Stand Long," Bing Crosby's "Volume II of Crosby Classics," Buddy Clarke's "Where Flamingos Fly."

All Tied Up . . . You can be pretty and cute now while wearing curlers! You don't have to hide when your best beau comes a-calling unexpectedly. Just put your hair up in some of the new pastel ribbon curlers. If some one catches you in this rig, you'll look very fashionable indeed. These new pretty curlers make it possible to wear your hair up while on the beach or enjoying your dinner.

A Star Rises . . . Sports writers predict that Bob Mathias, 17-year-old Salare, Calif., high school star who became the national A.A.U. decathlon champion recently, will be one of the greatest athletes of all time. He will head the U. S. olympic team of three all-around athletes in London this summer, rolled up 7,224 points in the 110 meter hurdles, discus, javelin, pole vault, 1,500 meter run to make the grade.

GOODBYE CAR ROCHESTER, N. H. (UP)—Fined $73 in municipal court for driving an unregistered automobile, Raymond Beaulieu sold his car to raise money to pay the fine.

BROADWAY By JACK O'BRIAN

NEW YORK—Two of our leading Irish crooners are at the feuding stage . . . Two of our leading producers threaten to knock the other's block off . . . Backstage at one of the town's leading hits, the leading lady and her leading man ain't talking . . . Half a dozen of our fancy saloonkeepers either won't enter their rivals' clubs or are barred . . . Which is a lot of venom for these hot days.

First reports from the summer theaters indicate a bonanza season. There's a move on to put the life of Comic Bobby Clark into a musical comedy for the Fall, based on a recent New Yorker mag profile . . . But Bobby can't play in it, having been previously committed to Mike Todd for a tune show with a cute twist to its story.

Watch for one of the biggest musicals to fold before Fall, losing a barrel of dough.

Of 20 productions on the boards as of this scribbling, unlucky 13 may be the number to shutter, leaving Broadway with fewer legit items than any Summer in a decade . . . Rubie Bernstein, a Broadway sage, made a bet a year ago that "Annie Get Your Gun" would outlast both "Brigadoon" and "Finian's Rainbow" on Broadway . . . "Annie" might even last another year . . . It made more money in its second season on Broadway than any new musical running in competition.

"Howdy, Mr. Ice," at the Center Theater, won better reviews than any of its gliding predecessors and is the newest Broadway hit . . . Freddie Trunkler is wearing a garland of fancy notices for his comic antics . . . And Eileen Selgh, a sprite who learned her stuff on her native Brooklyn firds, was pronounced a possible contender for La Heme's skating glamor eminence.

Lou Walters isn't making his cafe rivals any happier during these dog days by offering Abbott and Costello $15,000 a week to play his Latin Quarter . . . John Alexander, now of "Born Yesterday," will turn producer in the Fall if he can find a good script . . . I know a hundred others who will do the same . . . Good scripts are scarcer than the traditional lady-chickens' teeth . . . Eddie Cantor stopping traffic in the Waldorf lobby while gawkers entirely ignore another famous gent, our only living ex-president, Herbert Hoover.
