

THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

49,500 People Live within 20 miles of Waynesville—their ideal shopping center

Published Twice-A-Week In The County Seat of Haywood County At The Eastern Entrance Of The Great Smoky Mountains National Park

No. 59

EIGHT PAGES

United Press and Associated Press News

WAYNESVILLE, N. C., TUESDAY, JULY 27, 1948

$3.00 In Advance In Haywood and Jackson Counties

Junaluska Plans Million Dollar Expansion

Community-Wide Spraying Starts

Commissioners Get Hospital Expansion Petition

Board of Commissioners are shown as they received and began looking over the petition...

Units Check 5,000 For Tuberculosis

Truman's 'Turkey Day' Session Of Congress Ready

Commission Stands Pat On Train Decision

Draft Boards To Be Named Soon

Policeman Rodgers Returns To Navy

Jarvis Campbell Is Mayor Of Clyde

Clyde To Lay In New Sewer Pipe

Quiet Week-End On The Highways

At Last, State Adopts New Geography Books For Elementary School Grades

Pigs And Windows Sold Fast By A Want Ad...

Tax Offices Preparing To Advertise Property

9 Machines Will Spray Area With 2 Per Ct. DDT

Waynesville, Hazelwood and Allens Creek Included In Spray Areas

Taken by Death

G. C. PLOTT, well known Haywood man, was buried here Saturday afternoon...

Funeral Services Held On Saturday For G. C. Plott

Grover Cleveland Plott, 64, prominent Haywood county resident, died at 7:35 o'clock Thursday night...

Hughes Rites Are Held Sunday At Hyder Mt.

Funeral services for First Sgt. Ralph C. Hughes, Jr., killed in France on July 26, 1944, were held Sunday at the Hyder Methodist church...

At Last, State Adopts New Geography Books For Elementary School Grades

The State's elementary schools will have new geography textbooks next year for the first time since 1932.

New Hotel Included In Projects At Junaluska

New Bridge, Sewer System, Extended Water Lines, More Roads Proposed

Trustees of Lake Junaluska Assembly will meet Thursday morning to go over plans for a million dollar expansion program...

Canton Public Bonds Purchased

The Canton government commission sold $150,000 public improvement bonds on a trip to Raleigh last week.

County Folk Festival Has Been Postponed

The Haywood county folk festival, due to be held at Canton last weekend, was postponed until a later date as a precautionary measure against the spread of polio.

County Receives High Tax Sum

Haywood county ranked high among Western North Carolina counties receiving funds from the collection of intangible taxes by the state.

Hosts To Field Day Meet

MR AND MRS JACK McCracken prepared for hundreds of people to visit their farm near Bethel for the Home and Field Day...

Plans Completed For Big Farm Day

Jack McCracken's farm near Bethel School will buzz with activity Wednesday morning when Haywood county's annual Farm and Home Field Day gets underway at 9:30.

Baby Pictures To Be Used On Friday

The first of a series of Haywood baby pictures will be published in The Mountaineer on Friday.

Town Collects Over $4,000 From Meters

The town of Waynesville netted $3,796.53 in nickels and pennies this past year from the parking meters on the streets.

Vigilant Officers Capture 5th Still

Three Deputies of the sheriff's department, Max Cochran, Roy Reese and Horace Mebaffey—can't be very popular along Wilkins Creek in the Fines Creek area of the county.

No Polio Reported In Haywood County

The Health Office reported on Monday afternoon, that no cases of polio has been reported in Haywood to date.

Market, Weather, and other small notices.

Highway Record For 1948 In Haywood Injured . . . 23 Killed . . . 3