Distinctive Dark Dress

Black crepe dress with interesting detail.

By VERA WINSTON

HERE IS A dress that has womanly distinction and gracious dignity without a matronly look. It is an ideal dress for the smart woman. The black crepe is set off by fine fagotting which takes a diagonal line across the bosom and borders the tunic which dips in a V in back. The undershirt is straight and slim. The neckline, high and round, is a perfect background for jewelry. A dress to take the wearer nicely through late summer into early fall.
