GIFT8

The library has received some lovely books just recently and we would like to express our appreclation to the following people Miss Ellen Koch, J. R. Caldwell Mrs. Ann Shelton, Mrs. Caroline Peeler Mrs. C. R. Strawn, Mrs. W. H. Grimball and Mrs. Clyde Hay.

For the Bookmobile the Book Shelf in Asheville sent us a lovely box of books, some beautiful copies of classic for children and some fiction for adults. You might thank Mrs. Hoffman sometime when you are in Asheville

The library can use a lot of duplicate copies of fiction on the new bookmobile. Take a look through your book cases and see if you don't have some books you like to give.

Recent magazines may be used at the hospital and on the bookmobile. In case you have magazines why don't you take them to the hospital or leave them at the hbrary

Pocket edition books are needed. too on our Put and Take shell These gift books mean much to our library for it helps to build up our below average book stock and often the books given are out of print

FICTION

Gooden, Arthur Henry Trouble in the Saddle

When mysterious enemies chased Adam Marshall into the Rio Grande: he realized that something queer was atool and that danger threatened his grandfather and the old JM Ranch. There were men in the little burder town of Dos Rios whose actions needed explaining, also the unsolved murder of Linda Seton's sheepman Lither and the attempt to put the crime on Adam himself. Marshall set gramly to work to invavel the puzzh s and clear hunself.

Household Geoffrey, Vrabesque, Armande Herne thought she was charming an Arab chieffain into returning stolen weapons to the British in Benut, but they were taken over by the Haganah The British thought her a locely adventuress, the Arabs admired her as a British agent, the dews had made a cat-paw of her. So Armande drifted, hurt and lonely, troni Bierut to Jerusalem to Cairo until The raffishly intuitive Sergeant Prayle and British Intelligence gave her a new purpose in life
