

Benefit Bridge Party To Be Held Tonight

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary is sponsoring a benefit bridge party at the Hotel Waynesville tonight at 8 o'clock. Proceeds will go to the Auxiliary hospital fund.

A $25.00 permanent wave will be given as a door prize and other prizes will be awarded at each table.

Tables will be arranged for ladies and other guests, and refreshments will be served. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Roy Campbell at 879-4.

Party To Be Given At Library Tomorrow

A party will be given at the Haywood County Library tomorrow morning for members of the Travel Reading Club, who have completed the reading requirements of the club.

Miss Margaret Johnston, librarian, has announced a "surprise" is in store for the readers and it is important that they arrive on time at 9:45 o'clock.

Reading certificates will be awarded by Miss Johnston after the party.

Rotarians Will Give Supper For Wives At Piedmont

Rotarians will be hosts to their wives at the annual summer outing tonight at the Piedmont Hotel. Plans have been made to serve an out-door supper at the Hotel pool. More than 150 are expected to attend.

Hallett Ward is president of the club, and Charles Ray is chairman of the program for tonight's affair. He is being assisted by Kim Barber and Dave Felmet.

For a festive dessert top lemon pie with moist cantini or fresh breaded coconut.
