Clyde PTA Names Committees For The Coming Year

Committees for the current school year were named at the first fall meeting of the Clyde School Parent-Teacher Association Thursday.

Objectives of the P.T.A., the principal one being "to promote the welfare of children and youth in home, church, school and community," were presented by the new president, Mrs. Levi Morgan, who announced the committees to serve with her in promoting special activities of the association.

Another feature of the meeting was a report on the state P.T.A. institute held in Greensboro this summer by Miss Helen Smathers, who was a delegate from the Morning Star School where she is a member of the teaching staff.

A banner for the largest number of mothers present was awarded to Mrs. Frances Ratcliffe's first grade and Miss Betty Bass' 11th grade received a banner for having the highest percent of mothers present for a single high school room.

During a brief business session, the association voted to help purchase an adding machine for the school cafeteria (the cost to be divided between association and the school).

It was also voted that the local PTA has withdrawn its support as sponsor of a librarian for the Clyde school. The work now is being done by teachers and student assistants. Mrs. Joyce Haynes had served as school librarian for the past several years.

Standing committees were announced as: Hospitality, Mrs. Edith Y. White, chairman, Mrs. Lawrence Morgan, Mrs. Louise Hannah, Mrs. W. V. Haynes and Mrs. Ollie Collins, publicity, Miss Lucille Cathey, chairman, Miss Hattie Freeman, Miss Sara Long and Miss Betty Bass, publications, Mrs. Roy Medford, chairman, Mrs. T. E. Reed and Mrs. Otis Cole; study group, Mrs. Alice Haynes, chairman, Mrs. Joyce Haynes and Mrs. Amos Medford; finance, Robert Evans, chairman, Mrs. Howard Shook, Mrs. Ed Brooks, Mrs. Weaver Chapman and Homer Henry; projects, Mrs. P. C. Mann, chairman, Mrs. Gerald Fish, Mrs. Pat Cole (retiring president), and Stanley Livingston (school principal); by-laws, Mrs. Grover Haynes, chairman; program, Mrs. R. C. Cannon, chairman, Mrs. Lyle Jones and Mrs. Bill Harris; founder's day, Mrs. Jo Sam Hardin, chairman, Mrs. Pauline Goodson and Miss Martha Sandlin; pre-school service, Mrs. Frances Ratcliffe, chairman, Mrs. Claud Brown, Mrs. S. L. Rogers, Miss Hattie Freeman and Mrs. Howard Hall.

EX-CONSUL LOMAKIN IN SWEDEN

THE FORMER RUSSIAN Consul General in New York, Jacob M. Lomakin (right), is shown as he cleared through customs on his arrival in Stockholm, Sweden. He went straight to the Soviet Embassy and said flatly that he hoped this ended all speculation that he might not return to Moscow. The main topic on the ship during Lomakin's trip from New York to the Swedish capital was whether he feared the case of Mrs. Oksana Stepanova Kasenkina, Russian teacher, would make Russia uncomfortable for him. Mrs. Kasenkina leaped to her freedom from the Soviet Consulate in New York. (International Radiophoto)

FINDER OF $6,000 CASH DECLINES $30 REWARD

CHICAGO (UP)—Patrolman Leonard F. Michalski called up the owner of a wallet he found on his beat.

According to the Police Digest, magazine for Chicago policemen, when the excited claimant received it, he found that his $6,000 still was inside.

Michalski refused to take the one-half of one per cent, or $30, that the owner offered him as a reward.

PASSION FOR SHOES GETS COLLECTOR IN DUTCH

CHICAGO (UP)—The only explanation, the police can give is that Casimir Onik just likes shoes. Onik was the shipping clerk of a shoe factory until a watchman at the plant became suspicious when a case of shoes and Onik disappeared together.

Police soon were removing about 30 large packing cases of shoes valued at $25,000 from Onik's basement. He said he had taken them a few at a time and had no intention of selling them.

PLENTY OF HUNTERS

NEW YORK (AP)—A recent survey by a sporting goods firm shows that hunters purchase nearly half of all the equipment sold in sporting goods stores. Just the firearms and ammunition bought by the firm totals more than 40 per cent of all the business done by the stores.

PRAISES DOBBS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It didn't take Jimmy Phelan, new head coach of the Los Angeles Dons of the All-America pro Football Conference, long to decide he had quite a ball player in tailback Glenn Dobbs. Phelan says "Dobbs is the greatest all-around football player I have ever coached or seen". The loop's most valuable player in 1946 with the Brooklyn Dodgers, Dobbs had a poor 47 season because his triple-threat ability was wasted in the T formation. This season the Dons have returned to the single wing.

SALVAGED SOMETHING

DEL MAR, Calif. (AP)—When Direct Express, top racing horse, dropped dead on the training track at Del Mar, recently, it was not a complete loss to Owner Fred B. Greenly of Harrington, Del.

Three weeks before Direct Express died, a prominent Illinois breeding farm owner attempted to buy him from Greenly for $500,000. E. L. Whitehead, another horse man and representative of an east-
